By Sarah Rozeman

Welcome to a new year of high school! For some, this is the beginning, yet for others of you, it is edging into the end of your time at Caddo Magnet. But fear not, because the beginning of the year can be like the beginning of a good dream: interesting to think about, but something you will NEVER be able to explain. While you may feel bombarded at times with homework, don't forget to be looking out for all the things that happen between the lines at Magnet, the things that make Magnet a dreamer's haven.

Teen Spirit. The boys' lacrosse team unifies in the name of their favorite SPORT. Check out those happy faces!

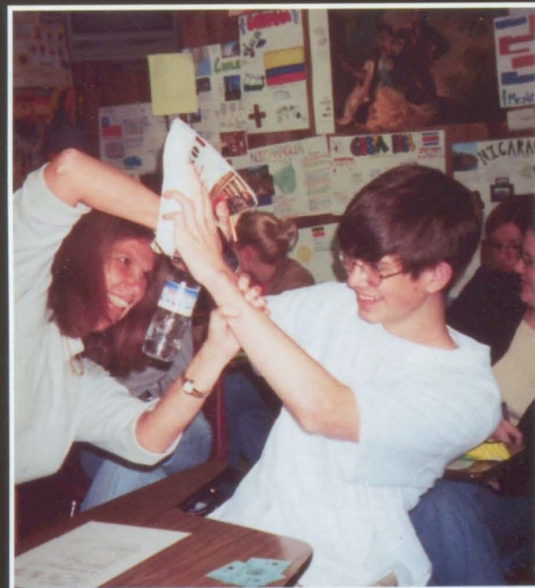

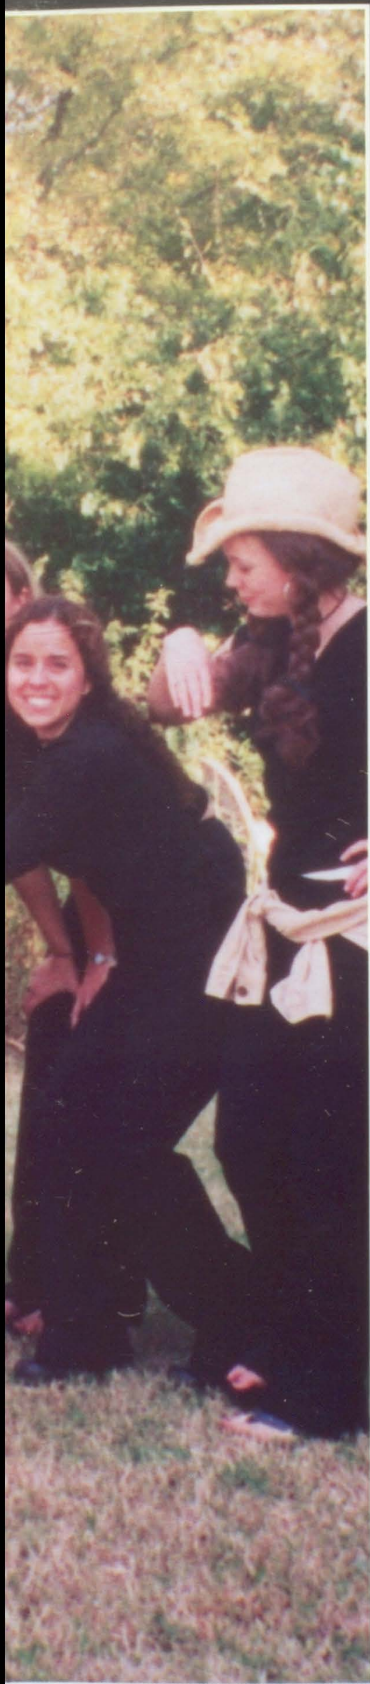

Up Close and Personal? It seems Seniors Jenay Duprey and Spencer Lee are ORGANIZING pretty closely doesn't it?

What a Man! Senior Brad Phillips proves that male STUDENTS at Caddo Magnet

High School definitely has a LIFE.

Senior Princesses. Seniors Erin Hinkle, Katie Cordaro, and Chellie Bowman show off their PERSONALITIES for the camera. I can see stars in these girls' eyes...they are heading places!

Money, Money, Money, Money! Senior Ryan Bienvenu shows off the green that he has been saving to buy his AD in the yearbook. What a way to spend your money!

Fight for Your Right! Senora Addington tries to knock some ACADEMIC knowledge into poor Senior John London's head. It's a tough battle to fight when you get to be a senior!

There is less to this than meets the eye!

Student Life

By Megan Wooley

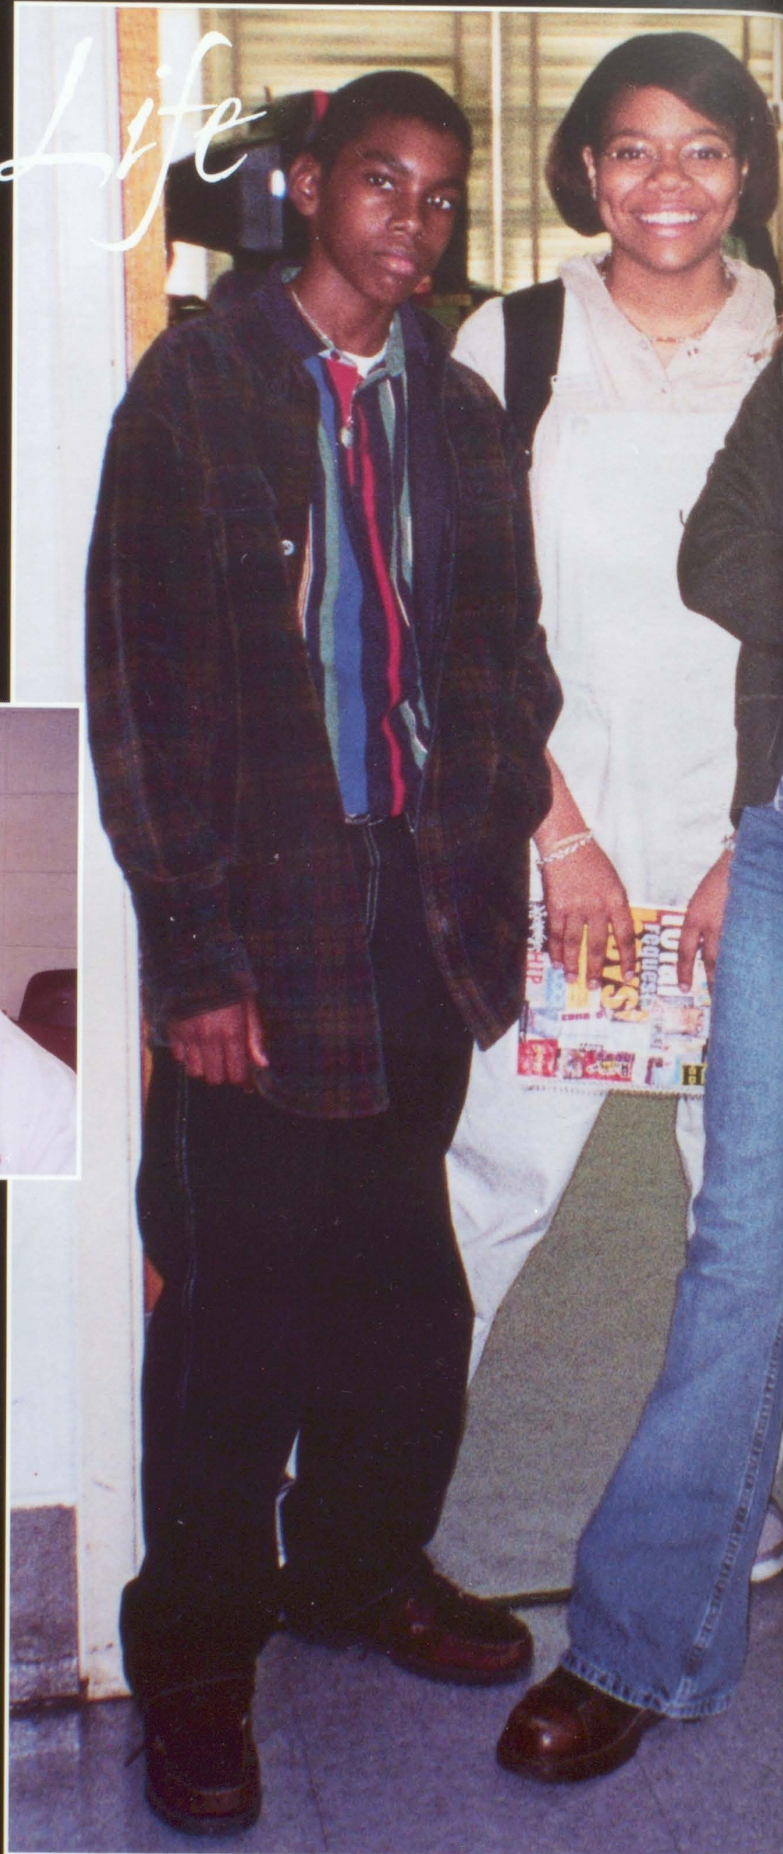

Magnet is at the top of the charts academically and athletically on both local and national levels. Magnet is unique in another area, but this one is harder to chart or score. This is Magnet's students.

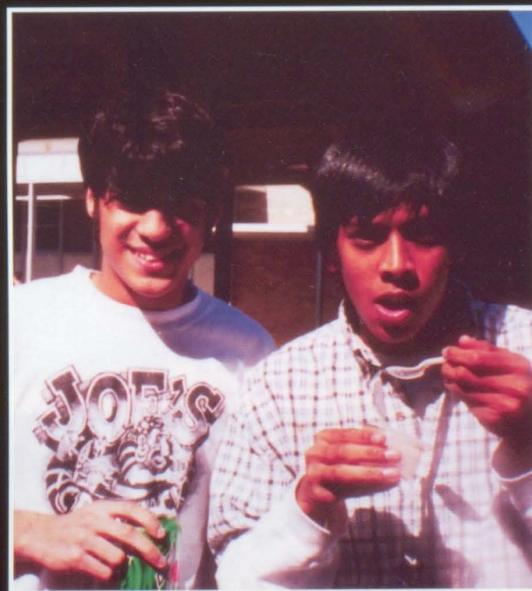

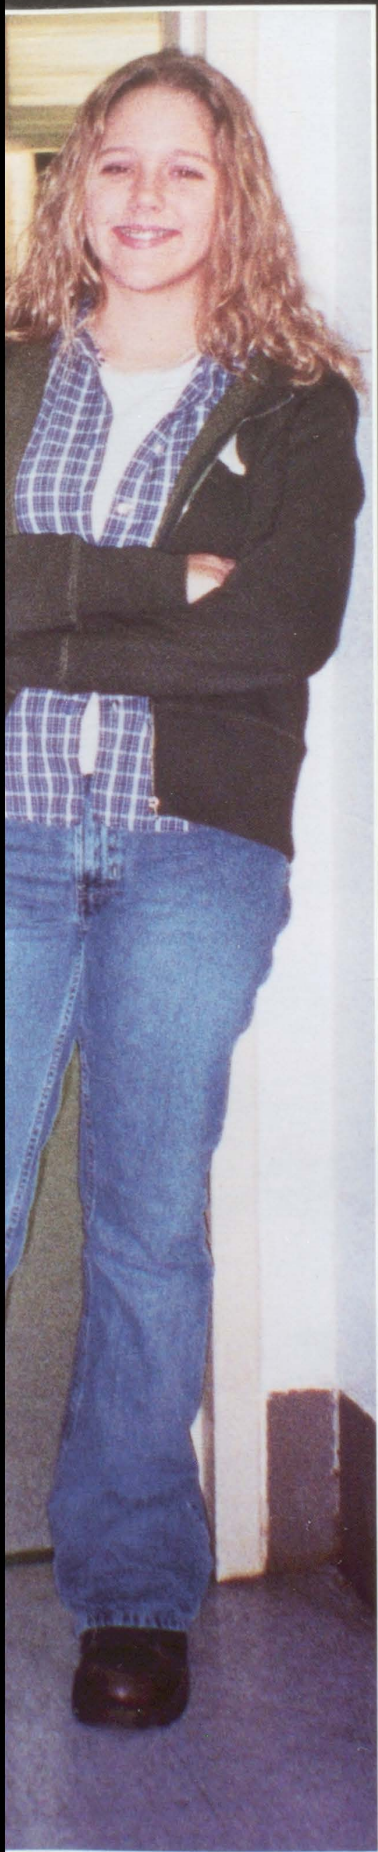

There are a variety of student types: jocks, preppies, gothics, and punks. Amazingly, each group gets along. People at Magnet do not see cliques. Individual group lines begin to mesh, and everyone becomes friends. This openness makes Magnet's student body the most accepting and tolerant of any school in the area. Magnet has many outstanding features, but its tolerance makes this school a dreamer's haven.

Go to Class! Freshmen Shamaria Peterson, Whitney Newson, and Sarah Spiver loiter in the halls before class starts.

Wake Up! Andrew Crawford, freshman, slowly falls asleep in class after staying up all night to "study".

Go LaCrosse! Sophomores Jonathan Younger, Michael Steinmetz, and Christian Hollingsworth work on their skills at Lacrosse practice.

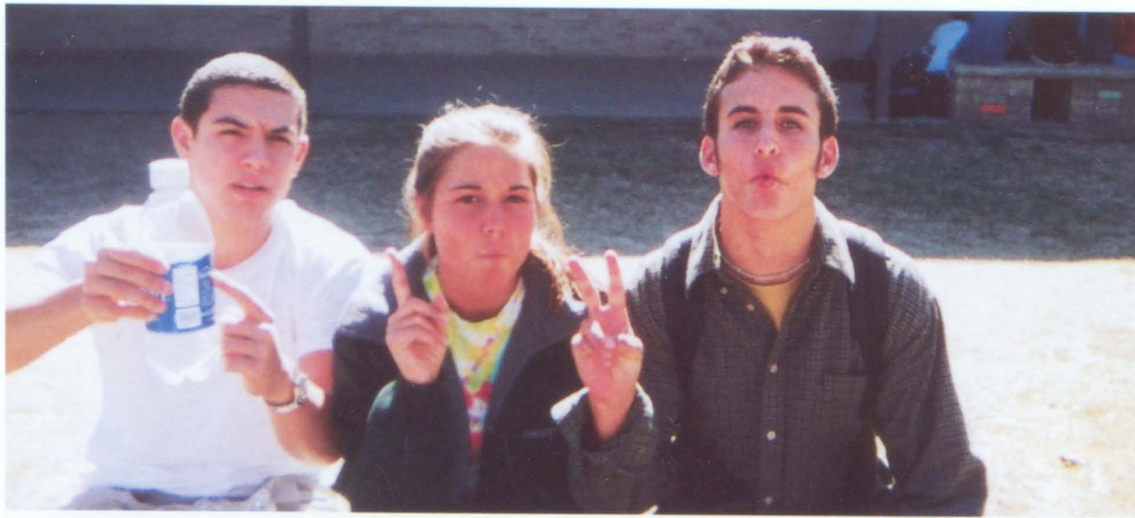

We Made It! Freshmen Shardai Adesola, Amanda Ford, Erik Nunly, Ronnetra Thomas, and Chanel Brooks are thrilled to have finally gotten to high school.

Dazzling Smiles. Jessica Minard and Mary Margaret Gilbert, freshmen, chat with their friends during lunch time.

Yummy. Two hunks, Andrew Abreo and Ravi Patel chill before being bombarded by their female fans.

Although human life is priceless, we always act as if something has an even greater price than life . . . But what is that something? -Antoine de Saint-Exupery

1 Fish 2 Fish Blue Fish? Junior Laurie Strickland and seniors William O'Brien and Adam Leon say their favorite Dr. Seuss book is One Fish Two Fish Red Fish Blue Fish.
Yummm... Junior Bryon Larsen loves his green eggs and ham!
Dr. Seuss is my hero! Mr. Trudeau tries to explain why The Cat In the Hat is his personal favorite.

What's Your Favorite?

"I liked Green Eggs and Ham when I was little, especially because it disgusted my mother."
 --Myisha Carey, freshman

"I liked Green Eggs and Ham because I really liked the color green and I loved eggs. I mean who doesn't like eggs???"
 --Carrie Kinnaird, sophomore

"The best Dr. Seuss book ever was by far Go Dogs Go because that girl dog with the hat was hot!"
 --Blaine Calahan, sophomore

"I like Oh, the Places You'll Go because it intrigues my mind with the endless possibilities of what life can provide for me, and....I like the pictures."
 --Mark Hand, senior

The grinch stole musical talent to Caddo Magnet High School for drums!

Places We'll Go

ent??? Senior Jase Wilkerson, also known as the grinch who stole Halloween, takes the Halloween Spirit Rally. Hey, I never knew that the grinch could play the bongo

Dr. Seuss is a well-known author of children's books. Anywhere from Green Eggs and Ham to Oh, the Places You'll Go, or maybe The Cat In the Hat. Whatever your favorite was--or maybe even is--we all have our different reasons why. Some make us think, "Oh, the places I could go." Or maybe "Oh, the places I have gone."

Whatever your dream is, we have our unique ways of deciding what or where we want to be when we grow up. Some make it harder than others. Some make it further than others, and some never reach that sometimes impossible dream. But it's those who work their hardest that do.

We like to look at Magnet as a dreamer's haven for the preparation of taking one more step closer to achieving that dream--whatever that dream may be.

Lilah hops on Taylor??? Juniors Lilah Cady and Taylor Robertson give us a little reenactment of their favorite book Hop On Pop. But for some reason I don't think Taylor is very excited about all this.

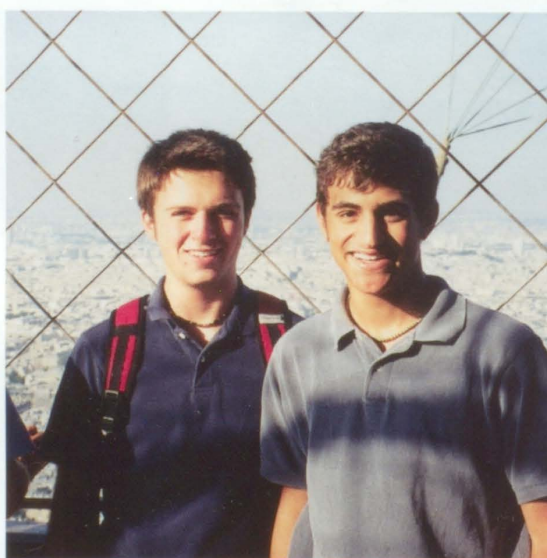

AWw...so cute! Junior Richard Yancey likes his mother to read to him every night before he sleeps just as she did when he was four years old.

You'll be on your way up!
You'll be seeing great sights! You'll join the high fliers who soar to high heights.

Wherever you fly, you'll be best of the best. Wherever you go, you will top all the rest.

Travel to a land unknown!...Junior Carrie Martin and friend built sheds for retirees in New Tribes Missions of Brazil.

What a view!...Calen Gregorio and Julien Hebert have a great view from the Eiffle Tower while in France.

How did you spend your summer vacation?

"I worked at Water Town over the summer. My job was to make sure all the little kids were safe in the kiddie pool."

--Carrie Laing, senior

"I went to Galveston Beach in Texas this summer. It was my first time to go to the ocean. I got a really bad sunburn. It took me two weeks to recuperate."

--Dustin Young, junior

"All the people that tell you not to swim right after eating are right. I learned that lesson the hard way this summer. My stomach still hurts!"

--Tom Fasho, junior

"Over the summer I went to the Dominican Republic and had a great time. I also went to a camp for deaf people."

--Ashley Lewis, freshman

What a hunk!...Los Angeles, Cali-when she had to opportunity to meet whether they're big screen or just from

It's May 26th! The first official day of summer vacation. It's time to sleep late, party, and earn money with those summer jobs.

June 21st marks the first official day of summer. It's okay to stay out late since it's the longest day of the year.

Summer

Summer: a time for rest and relaxation, right? Wrong. Along with the wide variety of personalities that make Magnet unique are the many different ideas on how summer vacation should be spent. Some students took the opportunity to catch up on their rest. Others chose to do the same but while soaking up some rays on the beaches in Florida, Texas, and other coastal states.

Traveling was a big hit with students who were seeking adventure. Their maps led them to great cities such as Los Angeles and even to far away countries like France and Brazil. To some students, wanting to earn a couple of bucks was an opportunity they didn't want to pass up. From movie theaters to swimming pools, there were more than enough jobs for Magnet students to choose from.

Whether they were sleeping or swimming, Magnet students found the perfect way to spend summer and dream away the days.

fornia really is home to lots of famous stars. Senior Tiffane Cochran found this out Cyrus from MTV's "The Real World." Meeting celebrities is always exciting, T.V. Tiffane will definitely remember this moment forever.

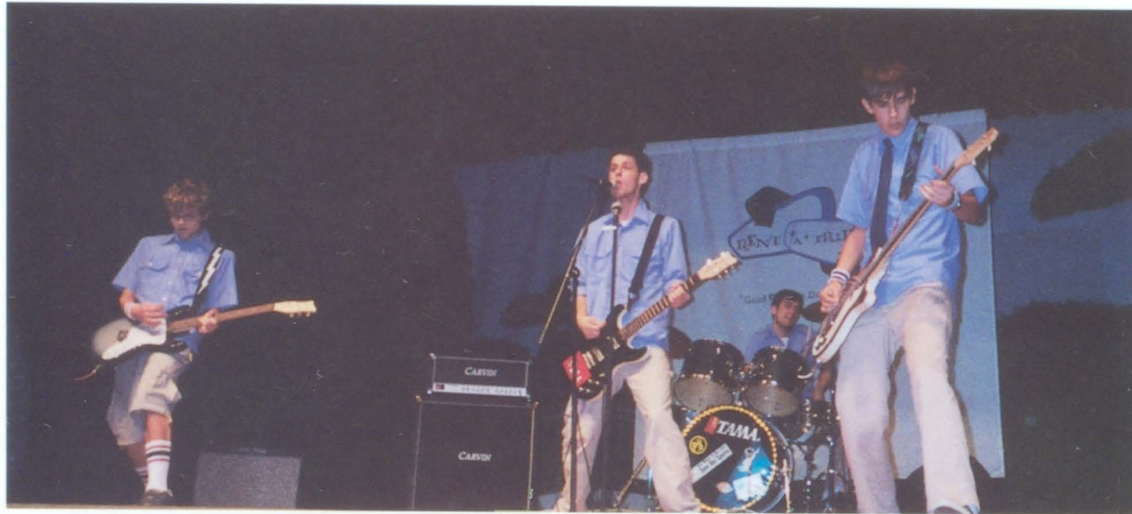

Scream Fest!! Seniors Melissa Dixon and Julie Miller are all screams as they capture themselves at just the right moment while on the roller coaster at a park in Gulf Shores, Alabama.

It's July 4th! Celebrate your independence by hanging up an American flag or by wearing patriotic colors.

No more sleeping late. August 13 means back to school for freshmen. Sophomores, juniors, and seniors go back August 14.

The SGA members work diligently raising money for the upcoming events going on at Magnet.

Talent Show, as usual, was full of surprises and spectacular talents: everything from Indian dancing to your average bands.

SEPTEMBER

September: students begin to settle into their place. Schedules are finally memorized and locker combinations come without thinking. Life is beginning to settle down. To stir things up a bit, Magnet hosts Talent Show, car washes, and Trudeau's rock gardens.

Talent Show was spectacular this year with an area of talent from the punkish rock band, Rent-A-Friends, singular acts of monologue, and modern Indian dancing.

If your car was dirty, you were in for a treat. SGA and the Magnet varsity soccer girls team held car washes early one morning. Both were very successful.

And what would September be without Mr. Trudeau's informative campus rock gardens? He brought his students out around the campus after learning the trade of rock gardens and let them put their own spark to it. Always count on Mr. Trudeau to do that.

SGA at work!...Brittany Bass and Federicka Williams both attended the Magnet SGA car wash, and they worked diligently as always.

ROCK ON!...Mr.Trudeau films his students making their rock gardens.

Early in the morning, members of the Varsity Soccer Team start early for collecting and more tournaments to attend. For a great season they have to have a pretty nice credible idea to raise money.

Mr.Trudeau's classes show the rest of the school they know their world geography by making campus rock gardens.

In the early morning, the varsity girls soccer team holds a car wash for the upcoming seasons, new uniforms, and tournaments.

How will Halloween be different because of the recent tragedies?

"Parents will want to keep their children safe, so they will probably keep them at home."
--Magy Shehata, freshman

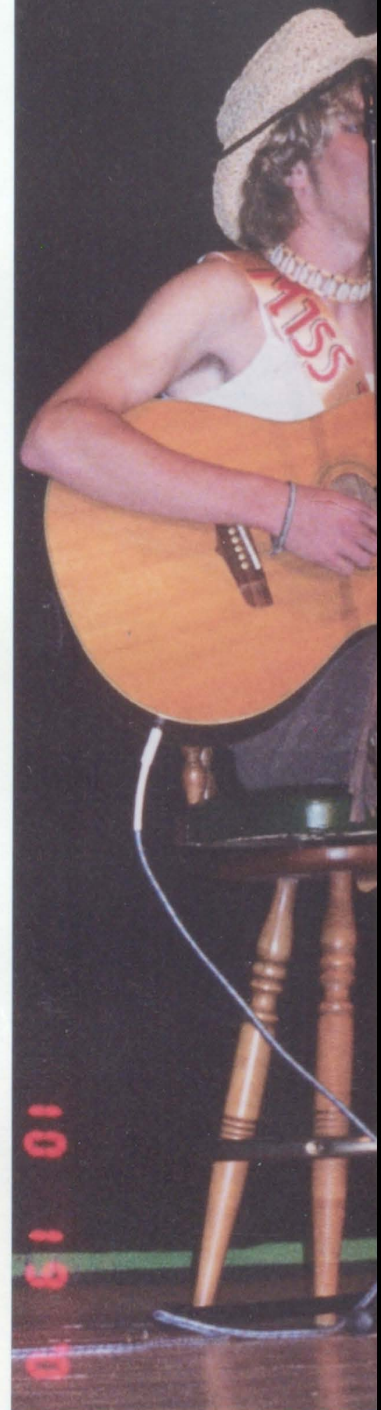

"Parents should filter their children's Halloween candy because of the anthrax scare."
--Derick Jones, sophomore

"On Halloween, people will hang out at more secure places like malls, instead of trick-or-treating from door to door."
--Sierra Brown, junior

"Children will dress up as heroes, like fire fighters, instead of gruesome monsters."

Ugly Miss Pageant

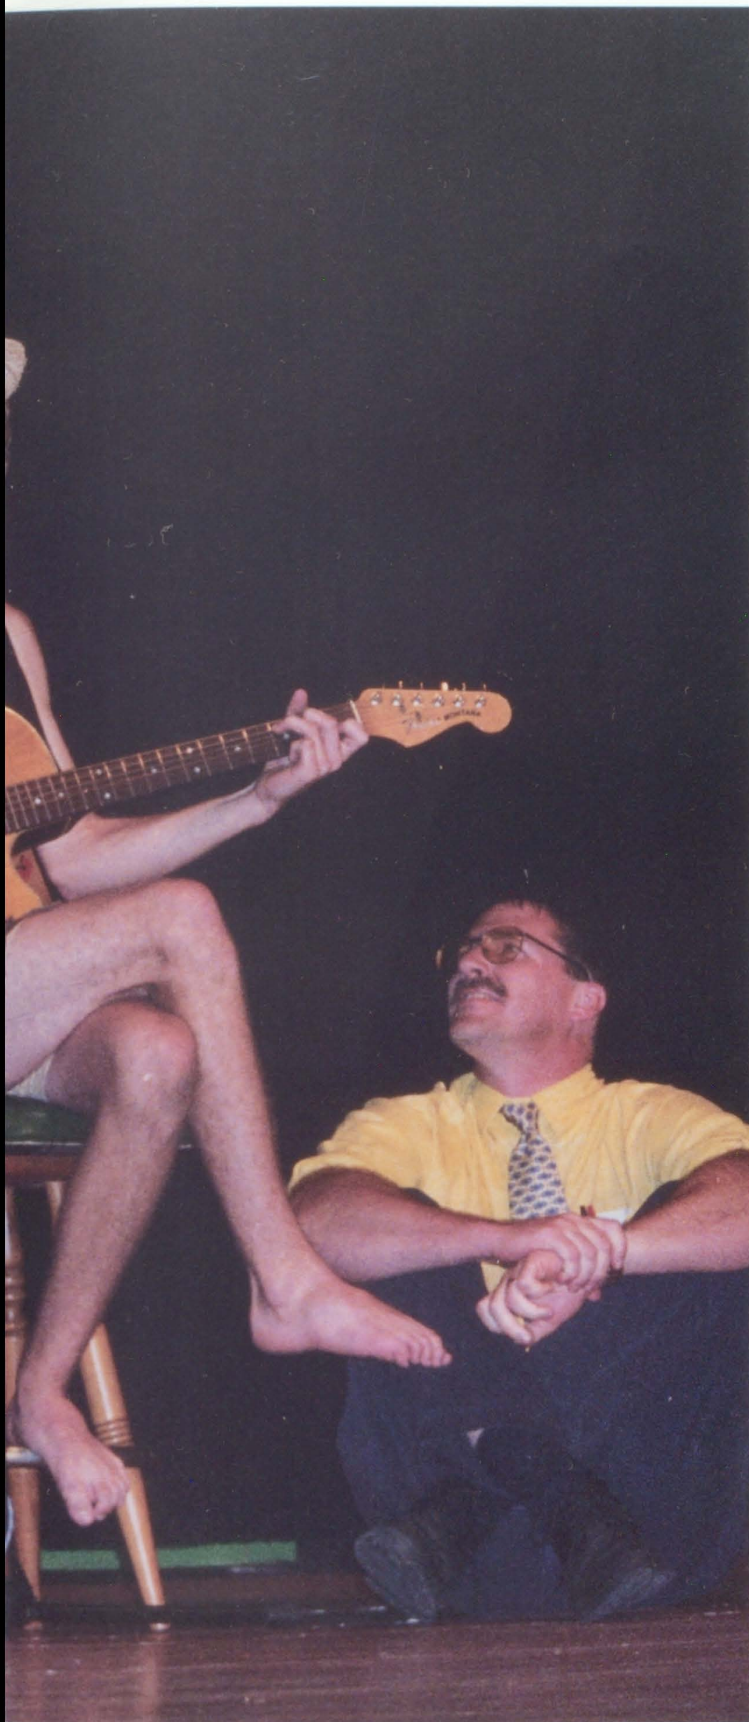

October

October at Magnet is just like any other month: full of unique events. One such event is the annual Halloween spirit rally. Some students take the opportunity to dress up in various costumes, such as clowns, cows, or devils. Also, the talent of Magnet students is displayed through the class skits. Fortunately, after being on a losing streak for three years, the class of 2002 got their act together and won the skit competition. Scooby Doo saved the day for the seniors and for Mr.

Allen. The juniors' skit received a thumbs-up for getting Magnet's own teachers to dress up as members of the boy band, BUNK.

Another October tradition at Magnet is the Ugly Miss Pageant. It features a select group of young men who are not afraid to show their feminine side by parading around on stage in women's clothing.

Whatever the event, it is unique in that no other school would dream of doing it!

"Dark...it is by far my favorite part of the bird. In fact, the turkey is the best part of my holiday meal. Can't wait 'til next year!"
--Briana Bass, freshman

"Dark meat is very near and dear to my heart. I'd eat white meat, but it's too dry. Dark meat always and forever!"
--Matt Wray, sophomore

"Uh Oh! White meat all the way! I tend to favor the white meat due to it's color and texture. Plus, it resembles a marshmallow."
--Carli Harris, junior

"Turkeys. One of God's most treasured creatures! I am not a turkey hater. I enjoy all parts of the almighty turkey."
--Jep Alexander, senior

WOOHOO!...Sophomores Patrick Fess excitement with an enthusiastic "high five!" team. "In our book the most important team a smile."

November

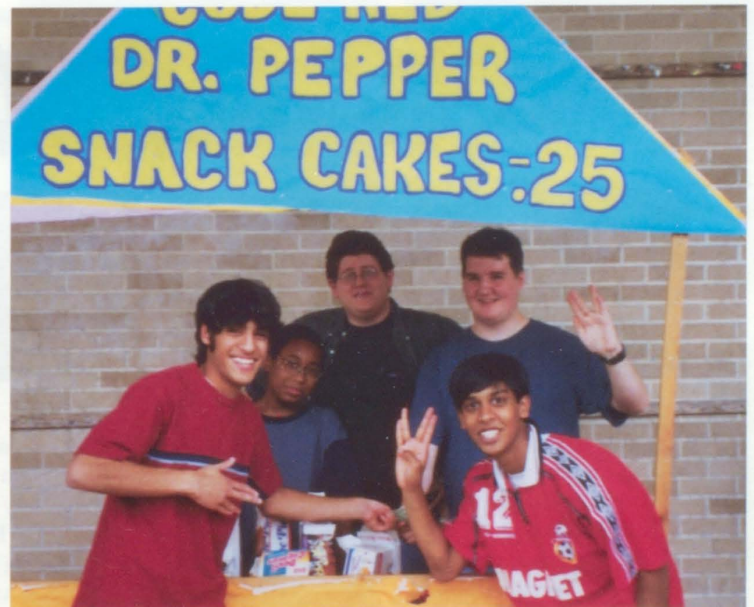

November. What a fabulous time of year! The chill of the fall air and the colorful leaves makes us dust off our sweaters for the upcoming season. Scarves, hats, and gloves are needed for those late-night soccer games.

School spirit is definitely evident this time of year as soccer season commences, as well as the excitement of Homecoming festivities. The dance, the spirit rally, the picnic with the great food and the slide...these November weeks are most certainly filled with fun.

Who's ready for turkey? As always Thanksgiving brings an eventful close to the month of November--and a much-needed one-week break from the toils of school. Of course, let's not forget to mention a pound or two from all the feasting!

December

December is just one of those crazy months at Magnet. This is the time for all of the Christmas-spirit smiles, red and green colors, last minute shopping, and tons of holiday sweets.

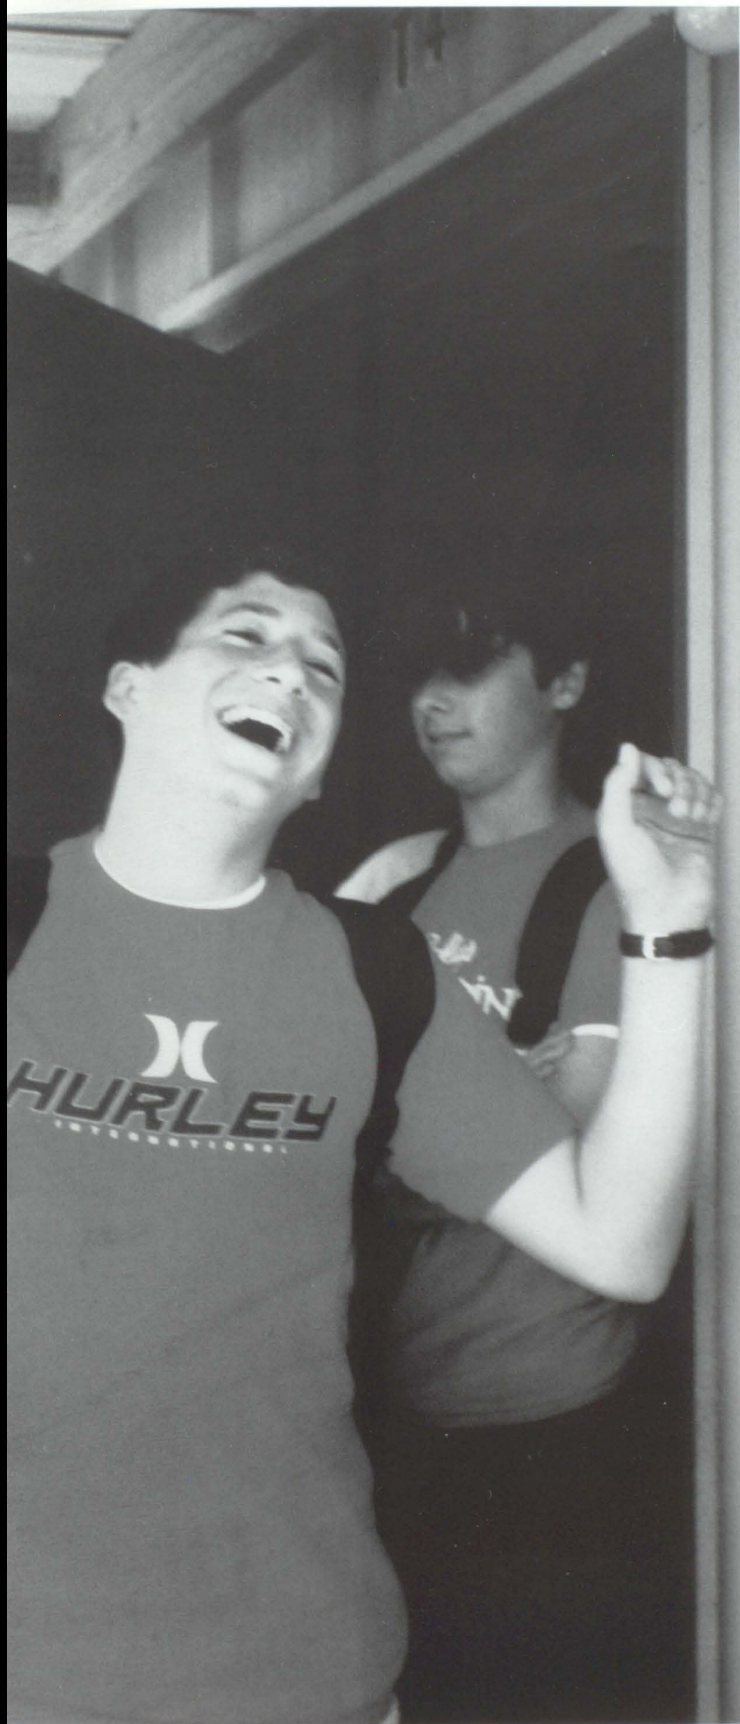

But there is one bad thing that comes with the last month of the year: midterms. While we all try to be joyful with Christmas, we stress over midterms--even teachers (believe it or not). After trying hard to stay awake cramming late at night for a week, we finish our last midterm in sixth hour on Friday.

The bell rings...finally. Everyone rushes out, wishing friends happy holidays and swapping presents. The time has come, at last, to party hard, go on trips, sleep in, and visit friends and relatives. Two weeks off from homework, studying, or getting up way too early in the mornings. This is when the holiday spirit really kicks in.

January

January is a fun-filled month at Magnet High. New Year's Day started the year off with money and luck in the form of black-eyed peas and cabbage. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday allowed students a three-day weekend in the middle of the month. They enjoyed this extra day to rest and catch up on their studies.

January 25 brought an exciting night of senior talent. Senior Showcase was the perfect opportunity for talented seniors to show off their skills.

Singing, instrumental acts, and dances entertained the masses. Open House on Sunday, January 27, brought 8th-graders from all over Shreveport to our wonderful campus for a day of tours and activities. Students gathered in several classrooms to show off pottery skills, chemistry labs, and other activities at Magnet.

Money, luck, a holiday, talented entertainment, and recruitment all make Magnet the place to be in January.

February

February is an exciting and event-filled month at Magnet! From the senior's victory at the Mardi Gras Spirit Rally to the 3-day weekend, everyone is constantly on the go. The Girl's Lacrosse Team was busy selling flowers for Valentine's Day while Z-Club sold Singing Valentines, presented the Z-Club Sweethearts, held their informal induction, and prepared for the Sadie Hawkins Dance. The boys' and girls' lacrosse teams kicked off their seasons at the Lax'n on the Red tournament with several surprising victories.

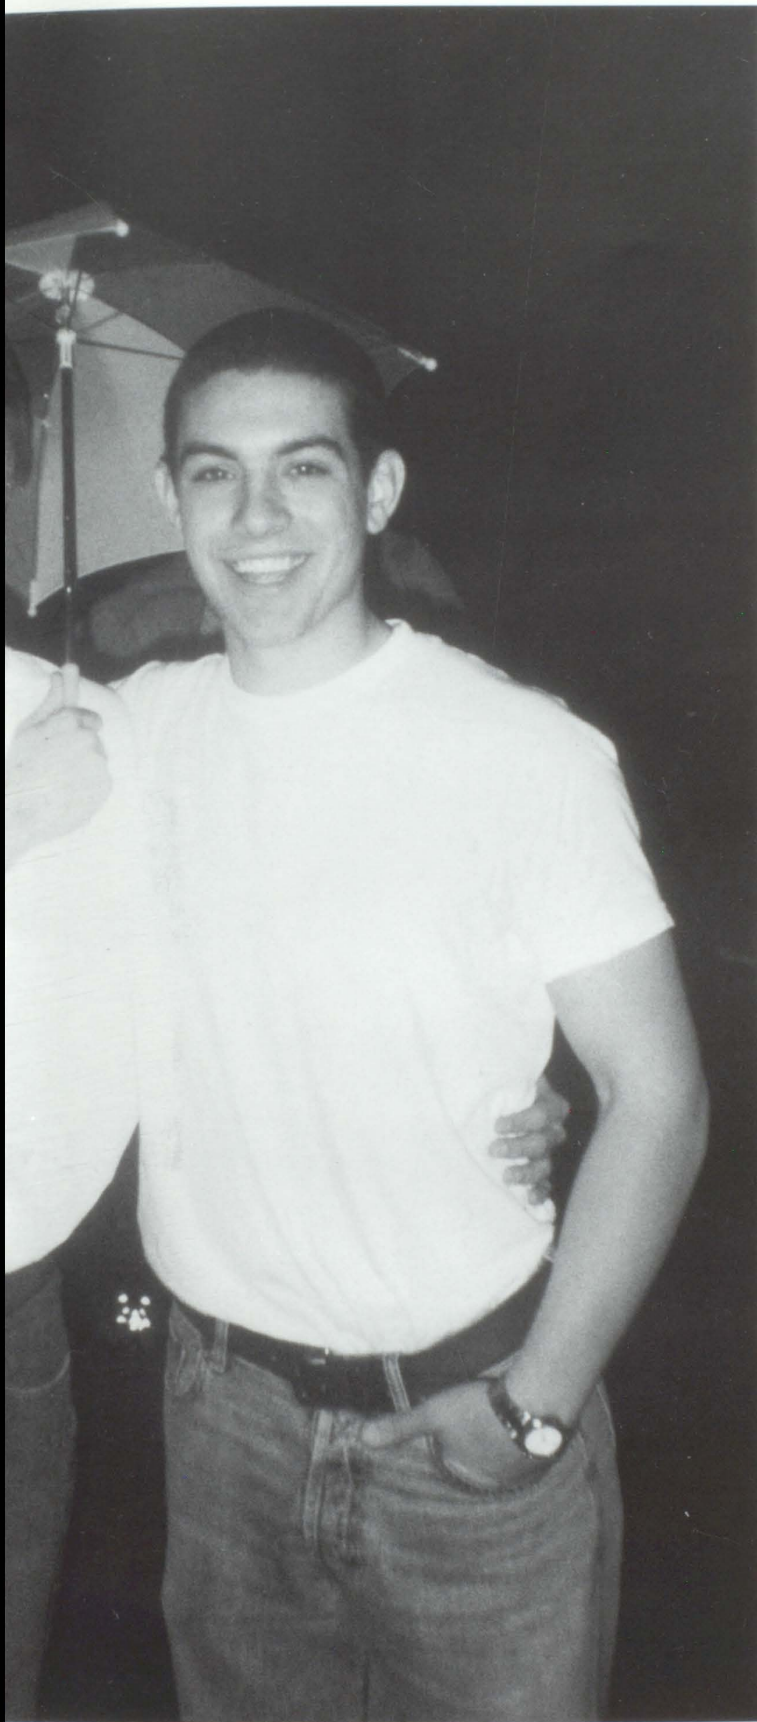

The weather has been a roller coaster as the temperature ranged from freezing to just plain HOT! As February comes to an end, we are reminded that Spring Break is just around the corner. The only thing that keeps the seniors going is the fact that there is less than 3 months left until graduation.

So guys, keep up those spirits as you "jump" into March!!!

March

The days are flying by, and we are finally to the busy month of March. We all know what that means right?...SPRING BREAK! Before the break however, students kept themselves busy with plenty of other activities.

This busy month was kicked off with Z-Club's annual Sadie Hawkins Dance. Students finally had the chance to cut loose and get down. Next, students were able to show their musical skills at Battle of the Bands! I think we will be hearing some of these guys on the radio! Other activities in which Magnet students were a part of are the National Honor Society Induction, Magnet's annual Spring musical, St. Patrick's Day festivities, Soccer Banquets, trips to Europe, and many other fun-filled trips to occupy the much needed break from school.

As the year begins to come to a close, I only hope every month will be as fun as this one. And for the seniors, "Just one more month!"

Prom

It's been a long year, and this night is the perfect remedy for the end-of-the-year blues. For some it is a first, but for others it's a finale. Whether you spend the evening with the man/woman of your dreams or your best pals, only a nightmare could turn this night into a fiasco.

But all sentiments aside, this is a night to dance, to party, to be with great people, and to just have a great time! Yet, even at prom, Magnet students never fail to show their colors: dressing like old-school movie stars, eating at McDonald's, dancing at Sci-Port Discovery Center, or wearing a flamboyant tuxedo. (What's better than wearing a jacket that looks like it is in flames?)

But now that the evening is over and we are left with only our memories, the truth must come out. After all, for any girl, the true beauty of prom is not the night...it's the dress!

Get a Little Closer!...Senior Seth Boutin shows some loving affection to one of the few sophomores at prom, Andrew Abreo. What a cute couple!

Girls Just Want to Have Fun!...Junior best friends Ashley Mitchell and Sheryl Sylvie take a break to show off those smiles!

Queen!...Seniors LaQuatre Rhodes and Mark Hand "take the crown" as they this year's prom king and queen. Now, what do these two say is the best part of the hats they get to wear! Congratulations you two!

4:30 PM

Girl: Make-up goes on and then the dress!

Boy: Sit around, watch tv, whatever!

5 PM

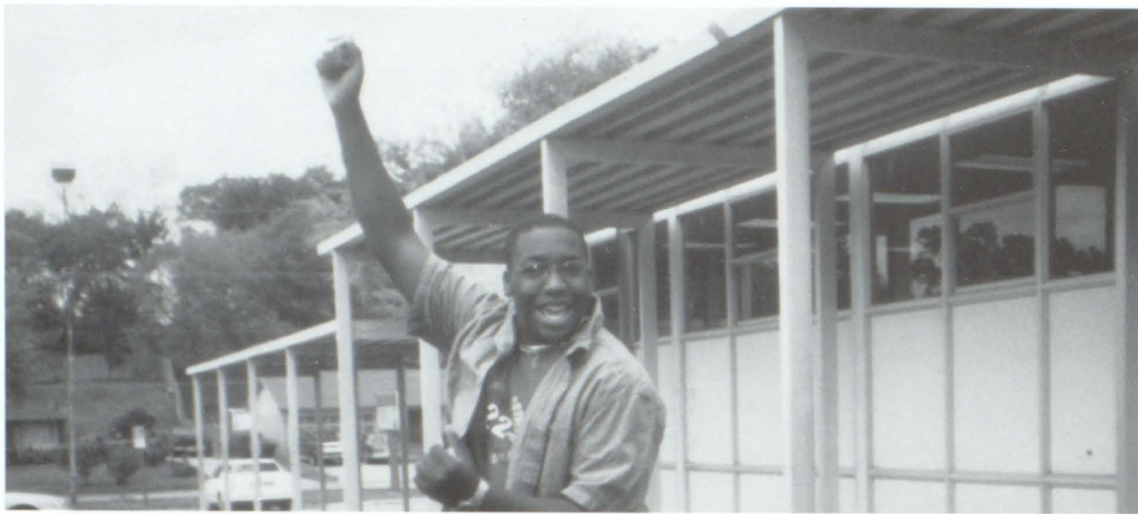

Girl: Sit patiently and wait for their date to arrive!

Boy: Take a shower, throw on a tuxedo, and go get the date!

Summer's on the Way! Juniors
May is a great time to get that base tan before sun exposure. Let's keep Magnet

May 8
Seniors make their grand departure. It's been real guys, but the rest of us have two more weeks

May 12
Mother's Day is a fabulous time to show your #1 mom how much you really care.

May

Well kids, the last month of school is upon us and it's time to bust out the swimsuits and flip flops and hit your area lake, pool, or small pond.

Well, it's almost time. First, we've got to get through the last three weeks of school and all its baggage. That baggage being last minute tests, projects, homework we forgot about, and the dreaded finals. But we get through it, every year we do. However, May proves to be quite a distraction from time to time. With the contagious disease of "senioritis" attacking the Magnet campus, it affects everyone, not just seniors. Magnet students are looking forward to summer and we cannot wait to get out. There are things to do, jobs to be had, and trips to be taken. So as you study harder than you ever have before, just think of what's to come: two and a half months completely free from school (but don't forget that summer reading).

See you next year!

I hate finals!!! Junior Erin Falbaum stresses over her American History final. Look at it this way, it's the last test before summer.

Oh no...Mr. James! Junior Ashley Mitchell tries to make a run for the parking lot. Unfortunately, Mr. James is like a hawk, he watches your every move.

Dana Keele, Tim Nicholson, and Lauren Patterson catch a few rays during lunch. before summer. But remember kids, apply that sunscreen at least thirty minutes skin cancer free.

May 19
It's official, Seniors! You all are now Caddo Magnet
High School graduates.

May 22
The rest of Magnet makes an exit. Finals are over and summer is here.
WOO HOO!!!

The Strength of a Nation . . .

We have always known that we had a strong country, but we did not know how strong our country was until the events of September 11th. Through the worst, the best has been brought out of this nation, standing united through all.

Stephen Goebel better not make checking in an everyday habit!

Lilah Cady better watch out because it seems that Mr. Gallant is cracking down on all these kids who think they can get away with being tardy to class.

Anything To Save Time! Yeah yeah, I know what you're thinking.....kinda WEIRD! But Sophomore Leslie Strickland will actually go that extra mile for that A on her test by laminating her notecards and putting them to use while she's in the shower! "It's my time to absorb the knowledge I should have learned the night before!"

"My excuse is simple but to the point: 'I forgot.' It goes with any situation requiring you to turn something in. It may be generic, but it's still my favorite."

Jeane Brown
freshman

"When a guy I don't like asks me out, I make up this wacky excuse that I already have a boyfriend. It might hurt their feelings, but it gets my out of a sticky situation."

Claribel Ubeda
sophomore

To help remember

Lost and Found... Sophomores Elizabeth Ricou and Laura Cook can never figure out the direction to class. However, they do seem to know the way to the bus ramp when 3:30 p.m. comes around.

All washed out! Senior Erin Paulson has given her share of good excuses. Her best one is the time she washed her report card with her jeans (Oops! All those bad grades were somehow washed away!).

Freshman Lauren Fogger believes her homework was stolen by an alien. Although, he does seem to resemble sophomore Stephen McCary.

Mrs. Thomas listens as Junior Will Standke gives lame excuses for not doing his chemistry lab.

Senior Huang Nguyen sneaks around to avoid being caught skipping by Mr. James.

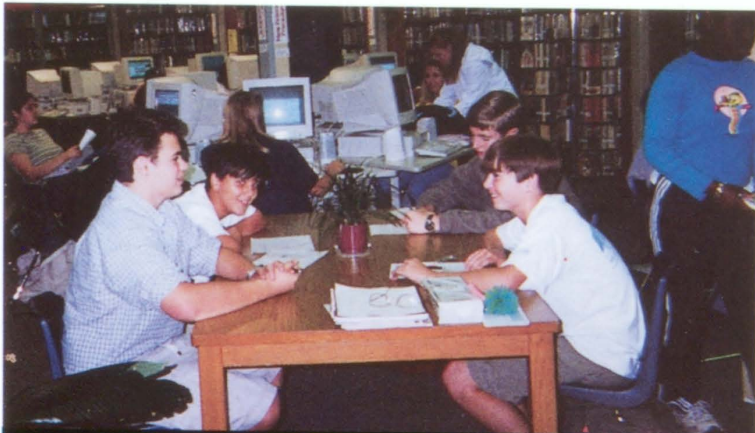

Freshman Victor Thomas is definitely in shape. He jumps over the ramp every morning to avoid being sent to the office to check in before first hour.

Give the dog a bone... Ginger has a unique appetite for senior Melissa Dixon's homework. Her dog always has a tasty snack in the afternoon that includes Melissa's slaved-over Buford notes. Last year, Melissa's 11th-grade American history notes added ten pounds to Ginger's figure. We wonder how many pounds her world history notes will add.

Freshmen Joel Schlichtemier, Kemerton Hargrove, Alan Wheeless, and Michael Webb pour over their books to keep their knowledge in check.

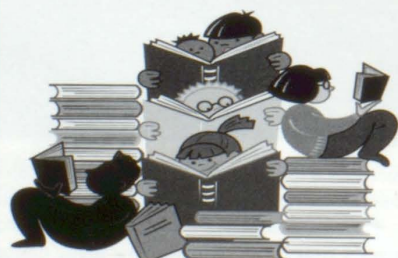

Hot on the Trail of Trivial Pursuit

By simply relying on Magnet's superb reputation, one might be inclined to believe that we were superior in every aspect. Our test scores are the highest, our chess team is unbeatable, our girls soccer team is state runner up, our debate team is a national champion, but do we know which end of the earthworm is its head?

Several of your fellow schoolmates were polled and asked these ten simple questions, although they were not especially easy. The questions were taken from Brain Quest for sixth-graders and Trivia for Tots, which was created for three to six-year-olds. Here are the questions and Magnet's results:

1. How many keys does a piano have?
2. Are the original inhabitants of Australia called Aborigines or Pygmies?
3. Which end of an earthworm is its head? The pointy end or the round end?
4. Which weighs more: a pound of feathers or a pound of iron?
5. True or False? All worker bees are female.
6. What mythical land is the setting for The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe?
7. How many stripes does a skunk have?
8. True or false? Anything with seeds is a fruit.
9. If Bill were playing cricket, what color should he wear?
10. True or False? Most spiders have eight eyes.

Only 37% of the Magnet students passed this quiz. How about you? See answers below. Hold up to a mirror to reveal the answers to the questions.

1. Eighty-eight
2. Aborigines
3. The pointy end
4. They both weigh one pound
5. True
6. Narnia
7. One
8. True
9. White
10. True

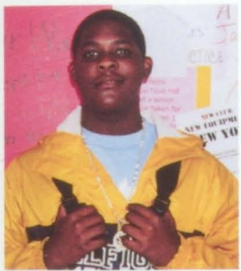

Five heads are better than one . Seniors Stacy Nelson, Craig Madden, Morgan McCann, Smita Rao, and Daniel Breithaupt put their heads together to try to think of new ways they can maintain the ingenious reputations they have spent so long building up.

"When asked what he does to keep informed on current events and quizzical facts, Alonzo says, 'I come to Magnet and that's enough for me.'"

How do you keep your intelligence quotient up to par?

Sleep Wise

How does she do it? Sophomore Frances Kelly loves dancing and entertaining her lunchmates amid all the studying she does to keep her intelligence level up.

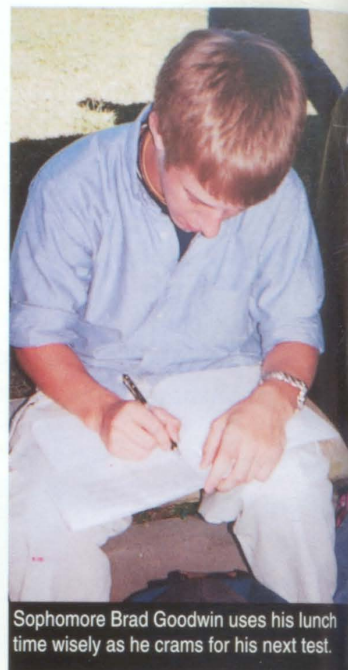

Brain Food. Casi Hikerson, Alex Bayer, Henry Hilario, Scott Witty, Laura Wilhite, Chelsea Paine, and Julia Fell think food keeps their creative juices flowing.

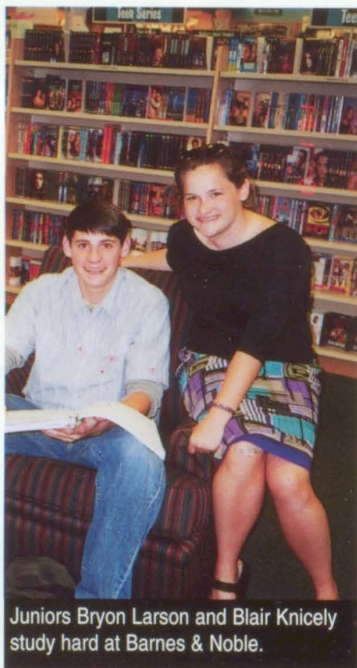

Reader's Digest. Junior Earl Hwang will try anything when it comes to studying, even if it means literally digesting the information. "Especially Pardue!" he says as he eats his American history textbook. I hope he doesn't have a fee for that book!

Sophomore Charity Hutchinson uses mnemonic devices to help her study.

Juniors Bryon Larson and Blair Knicely study hard at Barnes & Noble.

Flash Dance. Sophomores Rachel Wilson, Tiffany Singleton, Jenny McGee, and Christy George make flash cards to study for their hardest class, biology. They take turns quizzing each other until they memorize the information.

Quiet Please! Junior Thaddeas Wallace needs a quiet place when he studies. He goes to the library two to three times a week during his free periods or lunch. Way to hit those books, Thad!

Our lives are full of predicaments, large and small. The anxieties we face over these appear in dreams. Called "contrary dreams," they sum up the opposing pulls we're facing in life.

"I light a few lavender scented candles, draw a hot bath, and bust out those books! That's my trick of the trade."

David Yancey

"I have a pet bird, so I say things to him and then he repeats them back to me. It's an auditory form of studying."

Mr. Pardue gives Junior Doug Mata something to cry about.

Sometimes all Senior John Lary needs is a little R & R.

Junior Seth Warner hides his sad eyes with cool specs!

Junior Charles Elder can't take the stress of school!

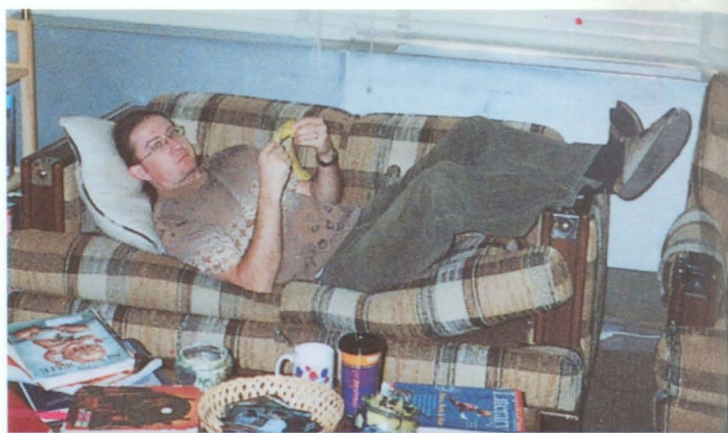

Sophomore Robert Dekay takes a lesson in love from the elusive Sophomore Katherine Lafargue. She taught him school is a place to shed that love tear.

Sniffle Sniffle! Senior Asher Nierman sheds a single tear while thinking of all the things he has to do, such as shopping, painting his nails, getting a pedicure, and walking on the treadmill. It takes a lot of effort to look as good as Asher looks! It's a hard world for men like him!

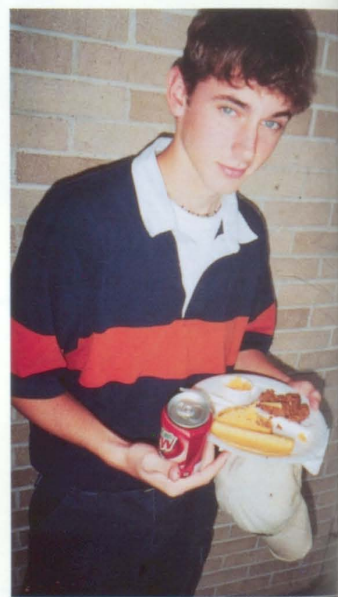

Machine Eat Your Quarter? Ryan Thompson attempts to retrieve his dollar by force from the greedy Fruitopia machine. "Gimme my Dr. Pepper, or else!" were the last words the drink dispenser heard.

Mr. Normand eats a banana in Ms. Sledge's room during lunch. You have to love Sledge's big, comfy couch.

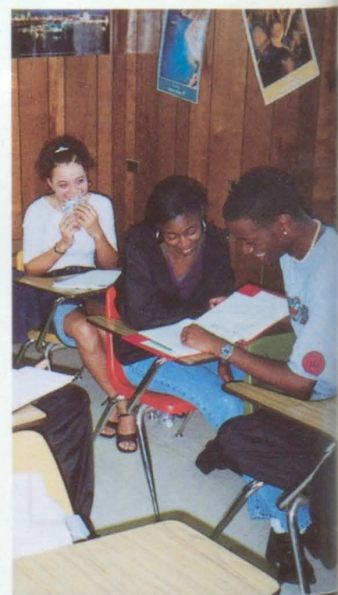

"Fish is Brainfood!" exclaims Mr. Pardue while looking at Moby, the new class mascot.

Kevin Benscoter claims he was just holding someone else's food.

Jordan Brady eats an apple in Mr. Gayer's English Class.

Joselyn Martin sneaks a bite to eat while Cheryl Brooks and Joshua Johnson study in Mr. Evans' class.

Exhausted, Mr. Joshua has to find time to sleep between his classes.

All of Rachel Van Ness's hard work goes down the drain

The freshmen regret not having naptime, so they make time.

Freshmen Taryn Ferro, Megan Garceau, Damari Mova and Megan Berry enjoy sleeping in Mr. Norman's class.

Nothing seems to work! Junior Josh Melder tries to waken Junior Jimmy Ong by throwing water on him. Not even water will wake him up. Jimmy is too used to his mother waking him up; maybe he should try using an alarm clock. Too bad he'll miss next hour. Keep on trying, Josh!

Wash that B away! Juniors Charles Elder, Alicia Grisham, Douglas Mata, and Lindsey Lewis wash Mrs. Clements' car in hopes that they'll not only polish her car, but also their grade.

Adam Leon and Jayci Beckett duke it out for a pot that can guarantee an A.

Ashley West grins because she knows a complete breakfast equals an A.

James Ramsay thinks it's funny to pull the fire alarm to avoid a test.

Kevin Dunkijacobsnolten, Jeff Jestus, and James Woolbert (yes, relation to Ms. Woolbert) are trying the new, crazy method of studying. We hope all goes well!

Aggressive Much? Overly-stressed Junior Emily Wilkerson likes to release stress before each test to prevent her brain from exploding; unfortunately, Andrew Marsala got in her way. We think he's learned his lesson; maybe the shortcut isn't the best way.

"Ten years down the road, I want to be a golf-course architect because I like to play golf all the time."

Sassy Scientists... Sophomores Katie Pratt and Courtney Ritter are on their way to becoming future Einsteins while doing an experiment in Mrs. Thomas's biology class.

I Do!! When sophomores Carrie Kinnaird and Walter Elder think about their future, they want to be married, but not necessarily to each other. Are we hearing wedding bells?

Freshman Adam Mastrodomenico, junior Jeff Smith, senior Cliff Gillespie, and sophomore Murrell Stansell hope to protect their country and their freedom.

Sophomore Christine Bradley hopes to have an easy future as a couch potato.

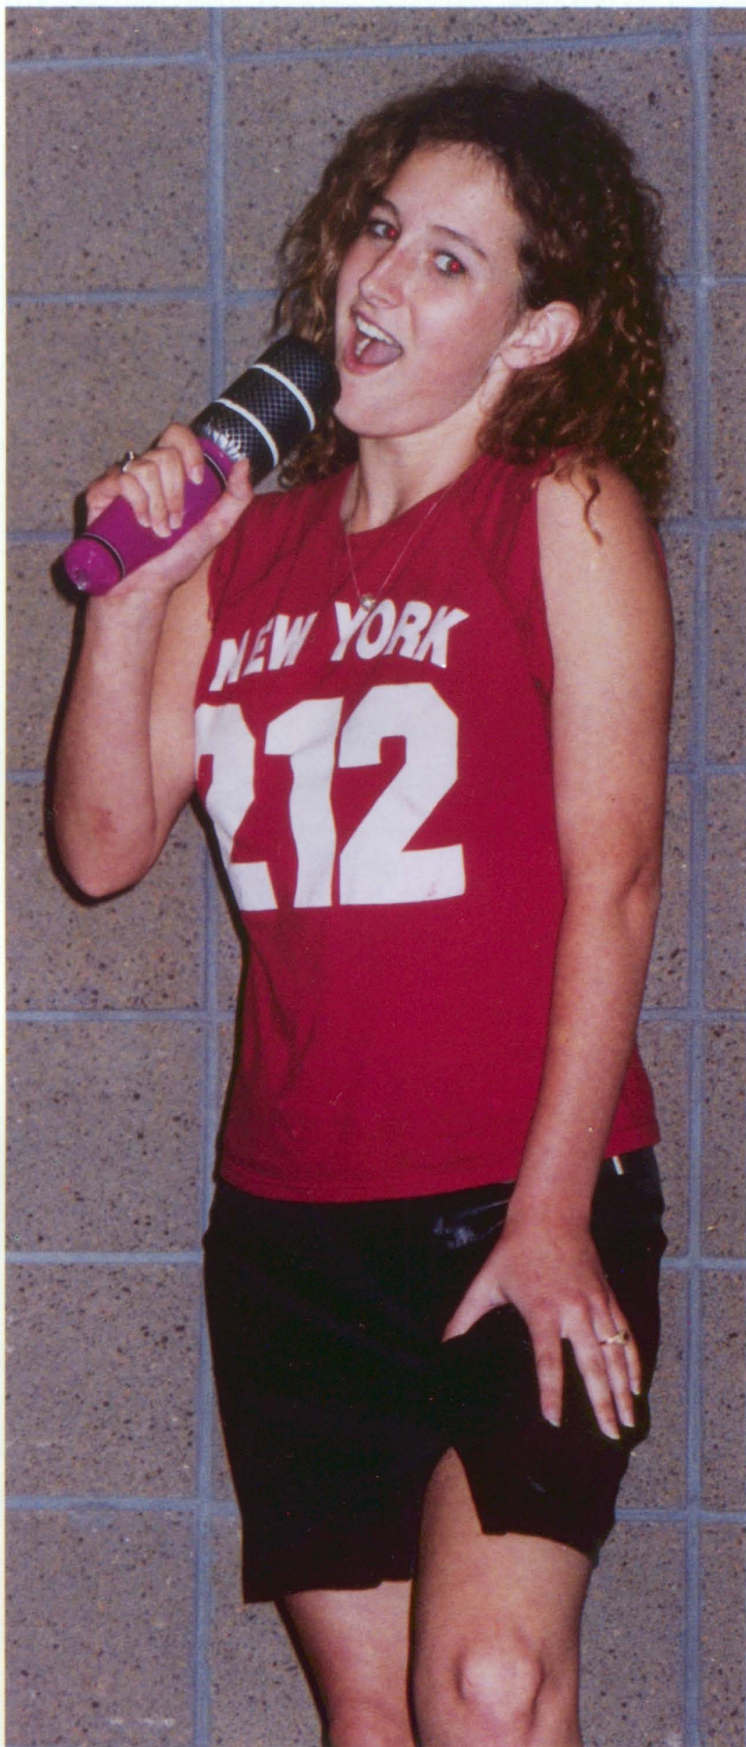

Sophomore Daniel Sartori practices his skills on the piano and dreams of becoming a famous pianist one day.

Sophomore Tiffany Singleton hopes to jump on the internet wave by becoming a dot-comer.

Sophomore Kelly Haynes wants to become the next announcer for "Miss Teen USA".

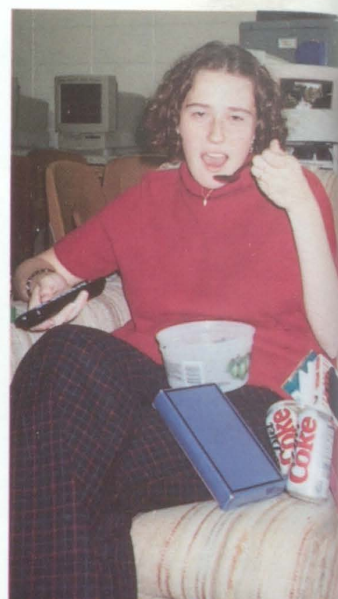

Ride 'em Cowgirl... Senior Jackylin Merolla has always dreamed of becoming a Country and Western singer. She also dreams of becoming a journalist, fire woman, and an Air Force pilot. Maybe she will be in the news when she graduates after twenty years in college.

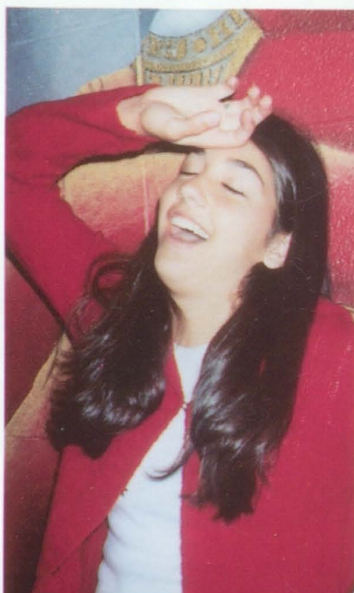

Beauty is Everything. Adam Leon finds a way to make time once a week to get a facial and manicure. He then meets up with his grandmother and her friends for lunch and a cup of tea at the Glenwood Tea Room. After several hours of chatting, they play a rousing game of dominoes before heading home for a nice long nap.

The Hargroves play Mission Impossible while escaping the wrath of Mrs. Singletary.

Trista Prothro eats ice cream, drinks cokes, and watches PG-13 movies instead of going to school.

Jacquelyn Broussard watches Spanish soap operas instead of stressing out over her tests.

Mr. James sneaks to the snack machines instead of focusing on the security of the students.

If you've been hearing music coming from the parking lot during lunch, it's not your imagination or a car radio, it's Seth Warner playing his guitar.

Double Trouble! Junior Richard Yancey shows his freshman brother, David, the ropes about skipping school. They spend their Friday afternoon watching movies and playing Nintendo instead of staying at school. What a great influence!

Look out Boys! Running forth at full speed toward the public pool, Penny Harold goes skinny dipping rather than going to her 4th hour, better known as CMTV. Sometimes, she just enjoys escaping the wrath of Mrs. Polehemus and the rest of the CMTV staff.

Personalities

By Sarah Kathryn Delphin

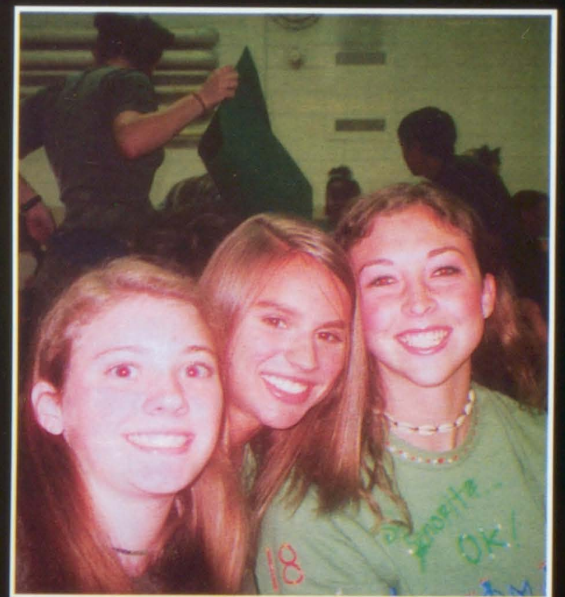

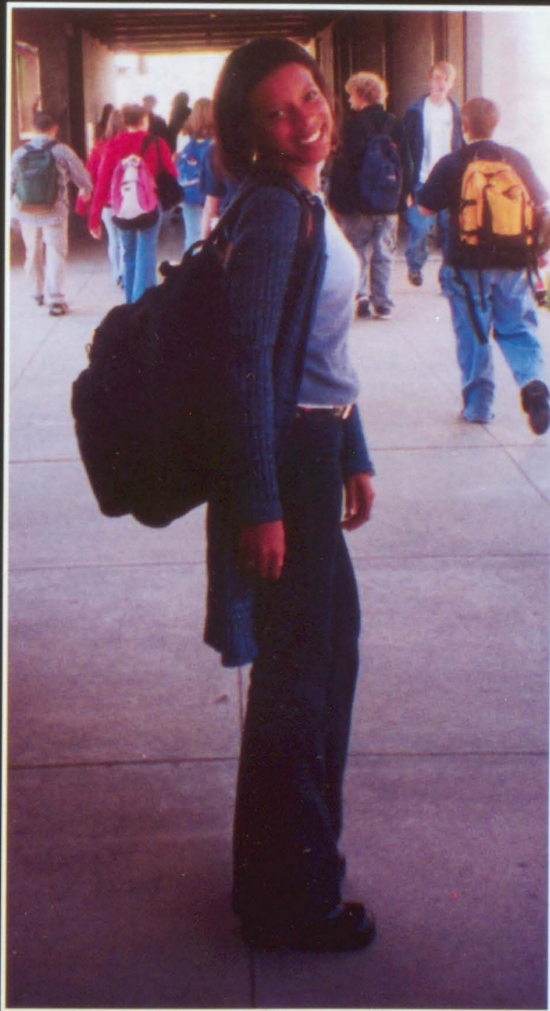

Almost everyone's personality changes by the end of their high school career. Most students' personalities do not change for the better during high school. There is one exception: Magnet. Magnet is a school where people can be themselves. One does not have to change one's personality just to fit in. People are accepted for who they are. There is no need to impress the "popular group." Magnet is a school that teaches values. These values help make Magnet a dreamer's haven.

The Art of Flirting. Sophomore Travis Northcutt spends his day flirting with the ladies, Leanne Price and Chelsea Payne.

Still Smiling. Sophomore Courtney Ritter is still smiling, even after being bombarded by friends.

Gorgeous Gals! Sophomore Britney Merolla, Whitney Spurlock, Catherine Berry, and Megan Wooley, freshmen, enjoy hanging out at lunch.

Healthy Chicks. Freshmen Molly Brau, Claire Kendig, Bailey Harper, and Sarah Rubben eat fruit for lunch to stay healthy.

Girls with spirit. Sophomores Jordan Brady, Stacy Palczynski, and Laura Williamson show their school spirit at the October spirit rally.

One time in Latin class, Mr. Haskew left, and the class erupted with conversation. We started harassing a certain individual who will remain nameless about her "kinky" habits. Little did we know that we were being listened to. The intercom came on and in a deep voice said "Big Brother is listening..." Needless to say, we were embarrassed. How silly, Mr Haskew!

By Emily Moore

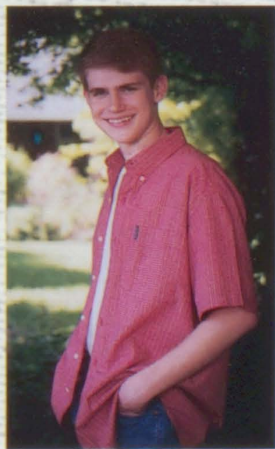

This one morning Joe thought that it would be a good idea to skip Mr. Trudeau's class. However, things got sticky when out of nowhere came Mrs. Singletary with her suspicious eye. Scrambling to escape punishment, Joe jumped unwisely into Mr. Pardue's very narrow open window. Although he didn't get caught, he suffered from some quite unsightly bruises.

By Jim Broyles

After a night of bowling, Mack Evans and I encountered Mr. James and Mr. Gallant with a bag of marshmallows going at it head-to-head in one of the fiercest games of "chubby bunny" I have ever seen.

By Ian Baldrige

One day at lunch I was aimlessly sorting through some photographs of some friends. One of them still sticks out in my mind. It was an incriminating photo of Brandon that I definitely wish I had not laid eyes upon. I had to update my contacts after this blinding experience.

Sleep does a body good!

How much do YOU need?

"The average amount of sleep that I get every night is approximately seven hours. The cause of this madness is the enormous amount of work given by Pardue and Sledge."

Richard Yancey

"How much sleep do I get a night? Well, I guess I could get more than I do because I'm up talking on the phone all night! But usually about five hours."

Christina Taylor

"Well, I usually need about five hours of sleep every night. If I get any less, my eyes get puffy making them look smaller. The last thing I need is for my eyes to look any smaller!"

Marcia Forrest

"I usually get about six hours of sleep every night. It's not my particular choice, but I'm always up late doing my homework. If I had a choice, I'd get like ten hours every night."

Ms. Rounds

Principal

It's been a fine five years at Caddo Magnet High School for Ms. Mary Rounds! But there are a few changes in this busy woman's life.

During her surprise birthday bash this year, Ms. Rounds was proposed to by the gentleman in her life, Mr. Greg Tisby.

Also, Magnet was ranked the number two public school in academics based on a statewide test!

Because of this accomplishment, Senator Landrieu came to highlight Magnet as an example school.

What a great five years it has been! And there isn't a more capable and dedicated person for the job. So kudos to you, Ms. Rounds; we are proud to have you as our fearless leader!

Mrs. Moore

Mrs. June Moore is our Assistant Principal of Administration. She attended Louisiana Tech University. She is an important part of the Magnet staff, and spends a great deal of time making sure students abide by the dress code and ensuring students have substitutes when teachers must be absent. It is a dirty job, but someone has to do it. Her favorite thing about Magnet is the excellent student interactions and working one on one with students.

Mr. Gallant

Mr. Bryan Gallant is Assistant Principal of Discipline. He grew up in Baton Rouge, received his BA degree at Northeast Louisiana University, his teaching degree at Northwestern State, and his master's degree at Centenary. Mr. Gallant enjoys traveling, reading, and spending time with his wife and children. He loves Magnet because of the friendliness of the students, their outgoing personalities, and the relaxed atmosphere.

Mrs. Snyder

Mrs. Snyder is a vital member of the Caddo Magnet Administration team. She graduated from Hinds County Agricultural High School. At Magnet she hopes to continue the program of excellence already established and prepare students for college. In the future she plans to be an English supervisor, secondary school principal, or college professor.

Teachers

Back Pains...Problems in third Tri-mester...Coach Stokes takes a minute out of his busy schedule to explain the trials and tribulations of pregnancy in his health class.

Chemistry Teacher by day and Punk Rocker by night...Mrs. Thomas demonstrates to her students what her wild weekends consist of.

Where is Mr. James??? Mrs. Watkins attempts to sneak away early on a Friday afternoon to escape from her daily stresses.

Don't be modest... Mr. Nadeau smiles shyly for the camera while holding his soccer trophy.

Organizations

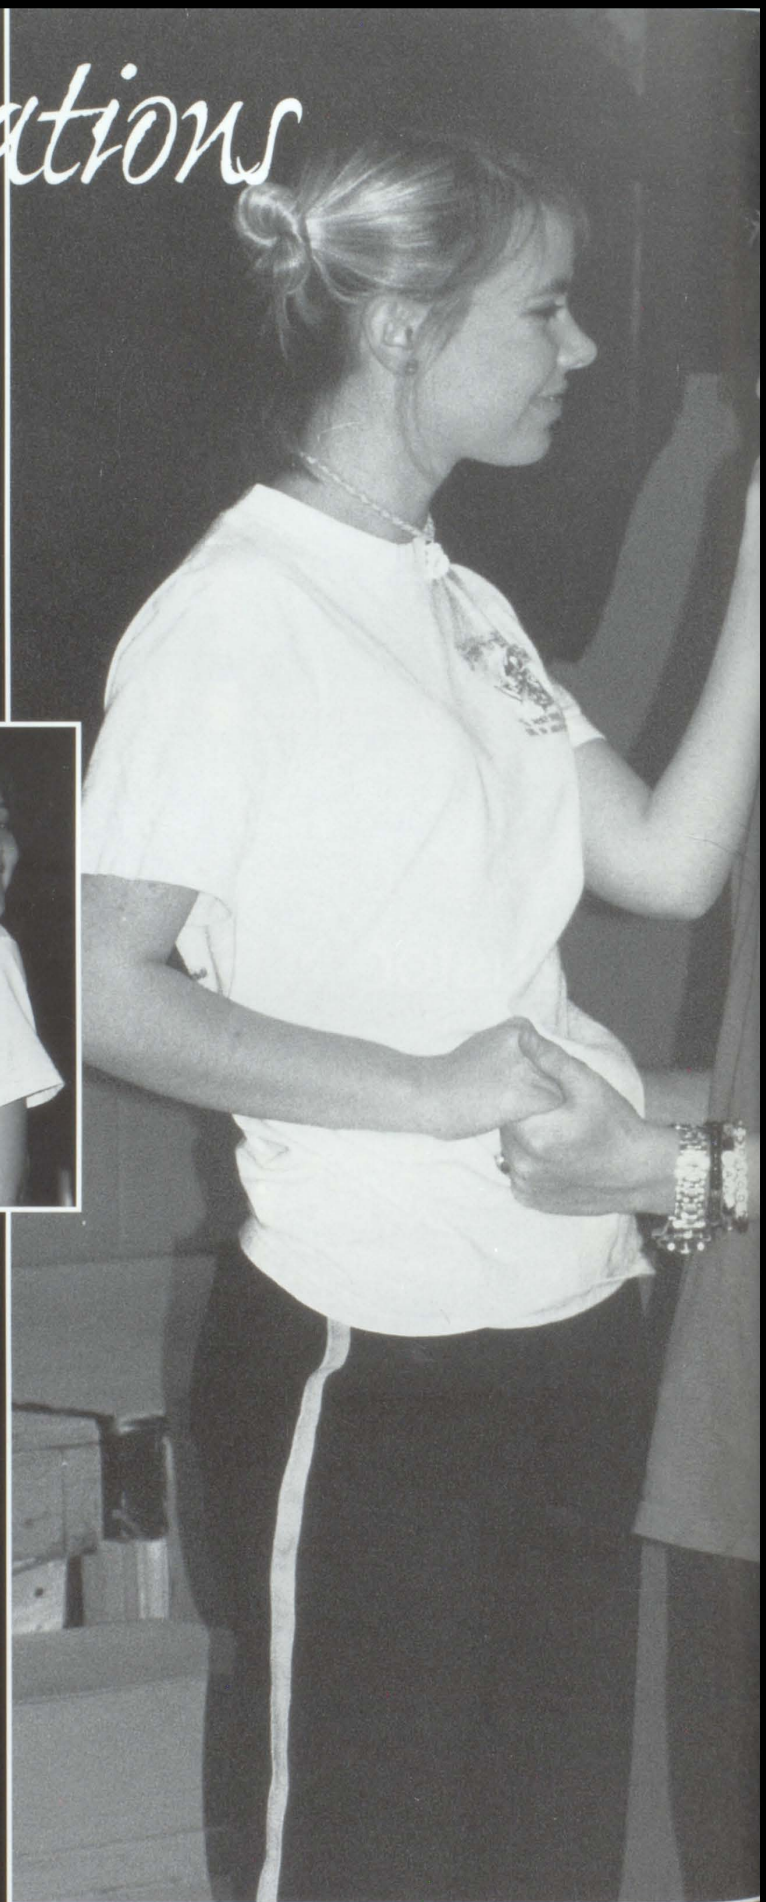

By Julie Miller

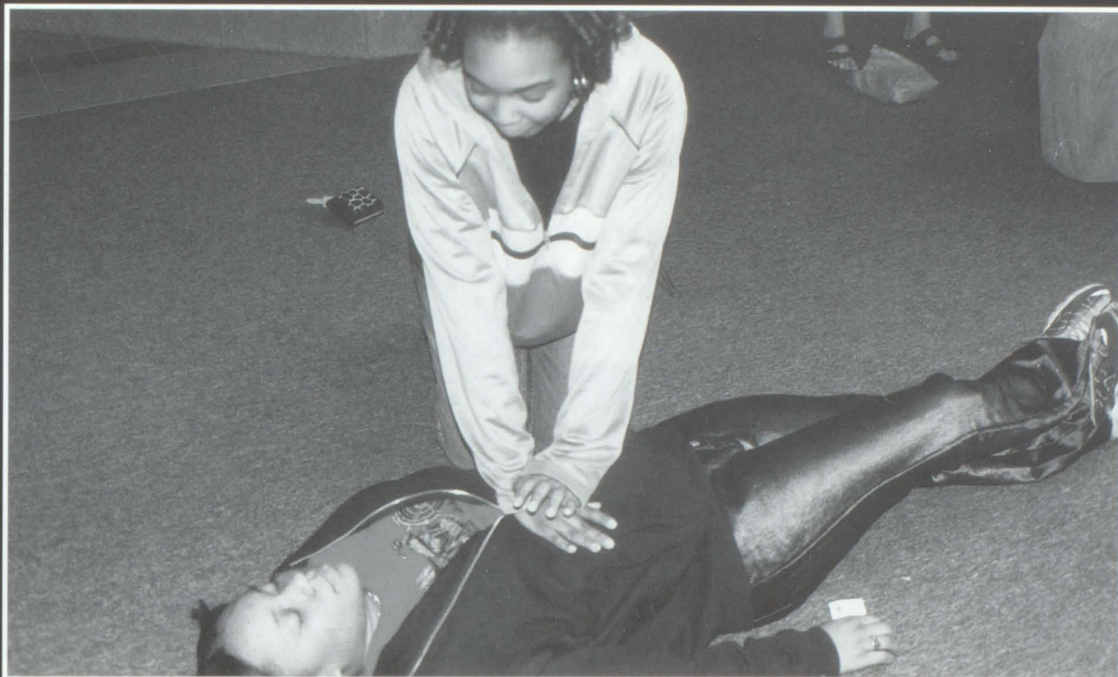

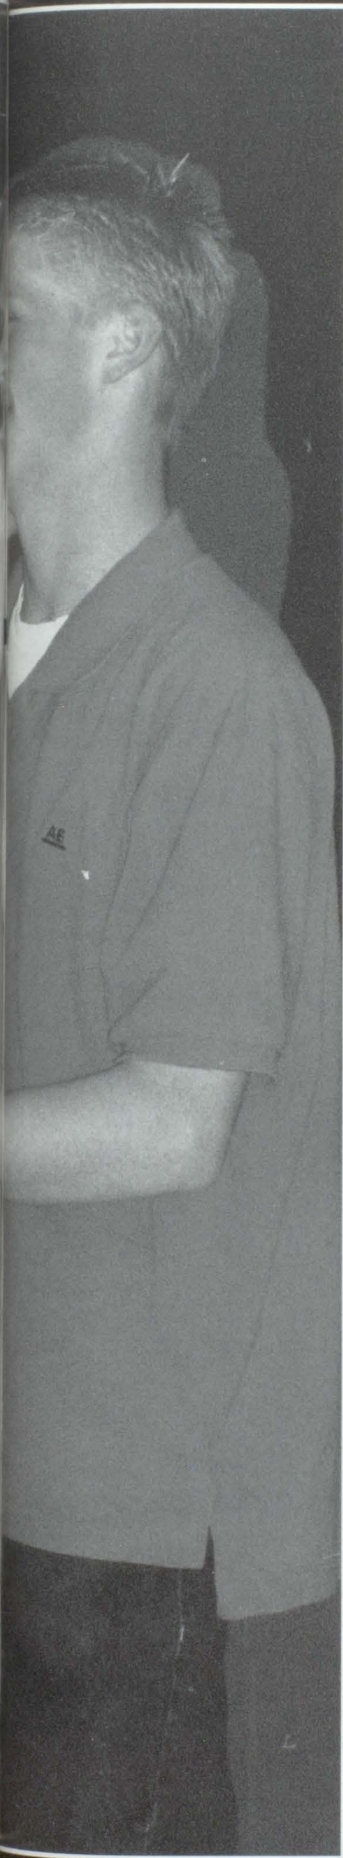

Magnet students have a wide variety of clubs and organizations to choose from and become involved in. Participants can actively pursue goals to follow their dreams. Aspiring actors steal the scenes in drama; future leaders learn through SGA; promising pop sensations perform with choir. Whether you are looking for community service opportunities, somewhere to go during Activity Period, or ways to make a professional dream come true, Magnet's clubs offer endless possibilities.

Oh, Romeo... Drama students Ashley Larsen and Daniel Camp take the spotlight at Fall Production rehearsal.

Look at me! Sophomore Erin Guillary shows off her new Pro Bono T-shirt that she received at the meeting.

Play it again, Sarah... Senior Sarah Rabalais practices for the upcoming orchestra concert.

Lending a helping hand... Red Cross Club member Kisseney Scott knows how to save a life thanks to the organization's annual CPR and First Aid training.

Altogether now... April Lawrence, Mallory Presley, Tarah Prothro, and Trista Prothro perform "Fever" with Show Choir at the Halloween spirit rally.

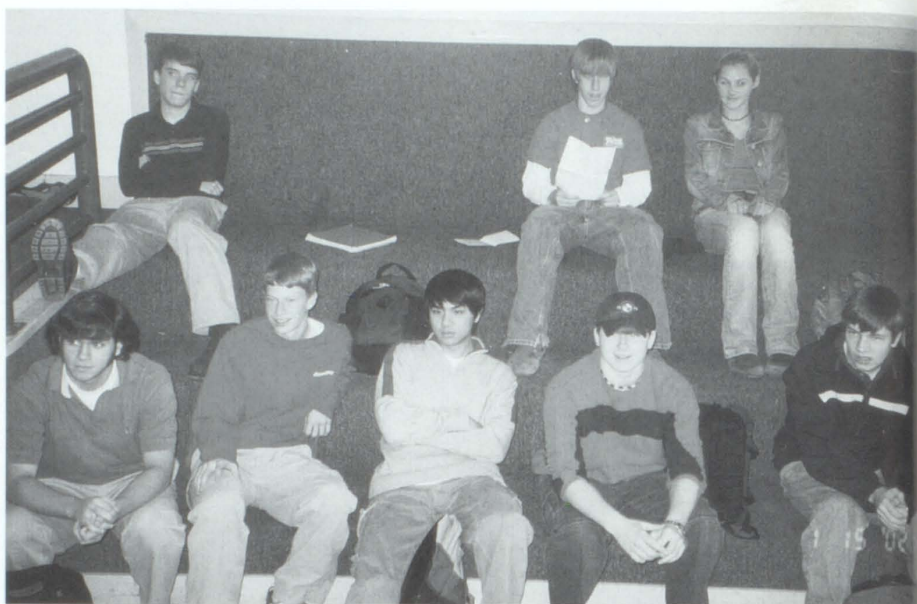

Hit me baby one more time... Seniors Jase Wilkerson and Mark Hand show off skills they learned through Magnet's music department.

Shoot for the moon; even if you miss you will land among the stars.

Like it, see it, edit it, and live it. It is a way of Life. CMTV.

Warning: Professional at Work. Penny Harold is no stranger to the CMTV crew. As a second year member of the CMTV staff, she is working her last year on CMTV to be the best she possibly can be.

The CMTV fresh meat had to get used to using the computer editing software. Chris Simmons and Lilah Cady are in absolute concentration of their masterpiece-to-be. They are blown away by all the transitions, audio effects, and special effects.

The Sound of Music!! Ben Farrier shows off his musical talent but not through acting. His piano skills aid the actors while warming up and practicing for their big musical debut.

Show time!! After days and months of practice, everything comes together on the stage at the play. Shakespeare's, A Midsummer Nights Dream, was a huge success.

"This was my first year in the drama department at Magnet, and it has been an AMAZING experience for me."

Sumati Jain
Sophomore

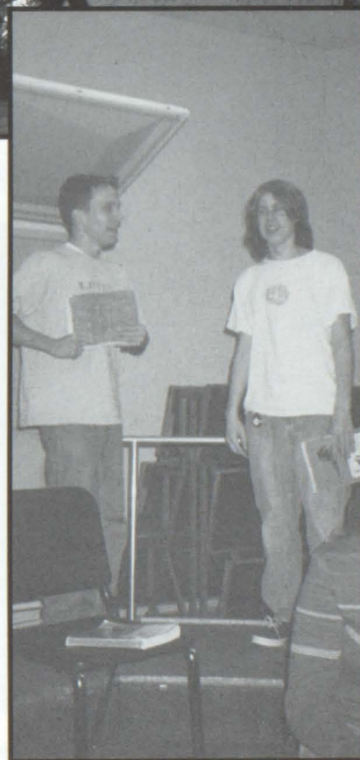

"I cannot describe my love for the drama because I'm so used to having my lines written for me."

Sarah Smith
Senior

"Drama Club is such a unique club, and as a member I gloat with gusto and zest."

Erin Hinkle
Senior

Love is in the air! Sarah Smith and Briggs Mobley were cast as a couple in A Midsummer Night's Dream.

I'm impressed! Dylan Nix convinced the school that he was the next Matt Damon with his realistic crying scene.

Practice makes perfect! Drama Club works hard after school to make sure everything is perfect for their next performance.

Not everything is pretty! As time comes closer to opening night, things on stage get a little rough.

Let's monkey around!! Senior William O'Brien and Junior Ben Foster didn't quite make it into the Animal Club, but they sure know how to show their support. Who knows...maybe they're just animals at heart!

What a quack!! Animal Club Member Zac Zeller shows off his favorite beanie baby. It was a tough choice, but "Quacks" tops them all.

Animal House

This club sure doesn't mind being stuck in the dog house...they LOVE it!

Animal Club president Lisa Lledke and fellow canine lover Rene Reed are working hard and having fun at the 3rd annual Chihuahua Challenge. Keep up the good work, girls!

Shirley Slay, animal club sponsor, is showing her support at one of the many fun club activities. This woman is no longer all about cats; she's a friend to all 4-legged creatures. Way to go, Ms. Slay!

-Seth Boutin

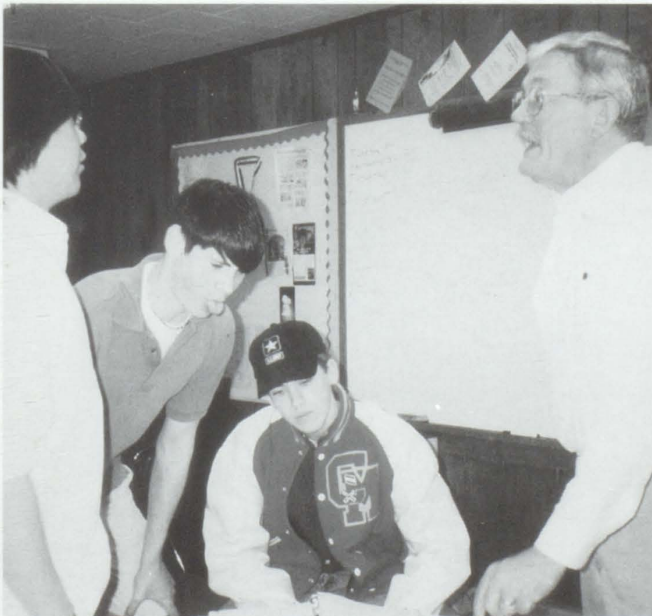

The Varsity Girls...Seniors Mary Roche and Adrienne Schlichtemier and Sophomore Frances Kelley pose for a quick picture at one of their many Decathlon meetings before school. These three girls make up the varsity team. Way to go girls!

Correct!!! Senior Ryan Bienvenu helps out his fellow teammate Ben Scruggs by quizzing him on some information for a big Decathlon meet that's coming up.

Decathlon

They can take one mean test!

But Mr. Gayer!!! Decathlon members Earl Hwang, Bryon Larson, and Michael Reeves all listen attentively to their sponsor, Mr. Gayer, who calmly explains that practice is a very necessary tactic. It seems like Earl and Michael agree, but Bryon just can't live with the fact practice is needed!

Sports

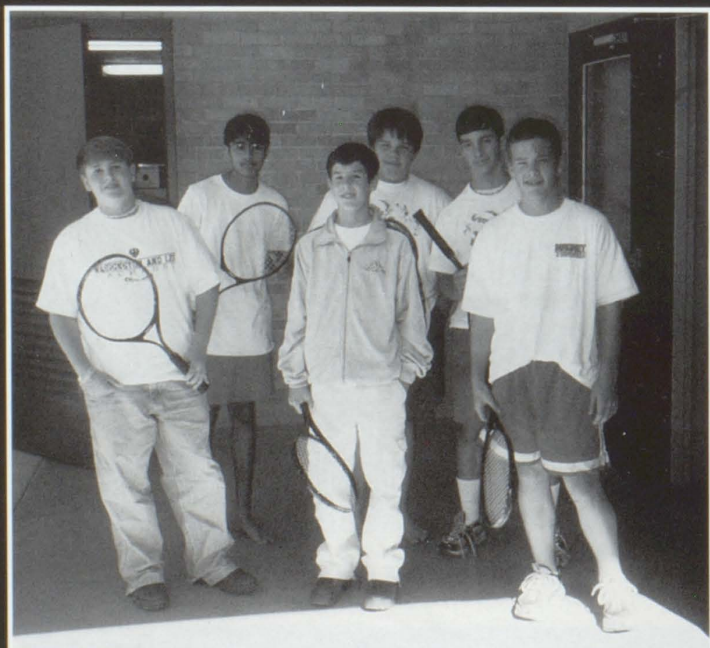

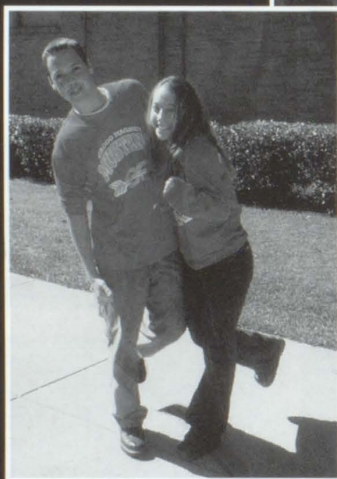

By Frances Garcia

The dream of greatness is the number one motivator in sports. Whether it's greatness in rank among others or the achievement in our own greatness, nothing moves us more towards our dreams. Our coaches and sponsors encourage us to participate in sports and help each other reach goals and make memories that will last a lifetime. In the sports we play, we grow beyond our limits and find ourselves in a dreamer's haven.

Take Your Mark Junior Katie McReil swims before and after school every-day for COSST--obviously, look at those muscles!

Go The Distance. Cross Country runners Holly Nagle and Benjamin Gilbert show their excitement for their first freshmen meet.

Intimidators. Freshmen tennis players David Yancy, Prashant Sastry, Taylor Jones, and William Andres take time to show us some game faces.

Practice Makes Perfect. It's never too early to begin lacrosse practices, even though with a great team like ours, they don't need any.

Congrats Boys! Senior Robert Shaumburg and Junior Ben Foster stand proud as they realize they made Varsity Soccer second year in a row.

Cradle! Cradle! Senior Katie Cordero prepares for the first lacrosse game of her senior season. She has one more chance to perfect her cradling, "You Go Girl!"

"Motivating Young People To Be Better Citizens"

Ryan Thompson

At the beginning of the year, Ryan didn't show much leadership. However, as the year progressed he has fully developed into a true leader.

-Sgt. Maj. Warren

Sheryl Uboda

Sheryl has always been a dependable cadet. She is always prepared for inspections and has not let her company down once.

-Brittany Bass

Tabatha Beech

Although it may seem that Tabatha is wild and crazy, she is a valuable asset to the Magnet JROTC program. We'd be lost without her.

-Jeremy Alfred

All for one, and one for all!
The annual Caddo Middle Magnet orientation includes a slew of fine young cadets such as these to enlighten all middle school students about JROTC. Hopefully, they have helped many middle school students to see that a life in the military can be very rewarding and has much to offer. The next generation of JROTC cadets are sure to be outstanding just like the current cadets.

JROTC

It goes like this... Tabatha Beech, from Alpha Company, assists cadets such as Joedy Barnes and Michael Clark in improving their uniform.

Job well done... Westley Lafitte casts a salute to Major Harrison as inspecting officials Leah Antipolo and Justin Millen record his perfection.

How do I look? Chris Roberts and Patrick Fitzgerald, cadets in Charlie Company, prepare for inspection.

Brain power... Major Harrison questions Lee Ann Trichel about her military knowledge during the February Regional Formal Inspection.

JROTC by Emily K., Grace, and Lowrey

Help me!

Cadets in the Raider Corp learn about teamwork through complex excercises and workouts.

Pump it up! These cadets show teamwork at its best by conducting the four man pushup.

Breaktime...

The Raiders Team takes a break from rigorous exercises which help them build muscles and confidence.

Drop and give me...

Westly Lafitte and John Cockburn prepare to pursue a physical state of well-being.

Up front...

Cadet Lee Anne Trichel stands in front of her teammates in the Sabre Corps, a branch of the Raiders.

Up and down...

Cadets drill to prepare themselves for the Cadet Challenge. Good Luck!

Quiet, please... Jared Gafford and Chris Roberts stand tall during practice.
Steady... Joseph Hubley practices his balance on the ropes course.

Steady now... Anquitra Woods and Tiffany Harris stand at attention during a Drill Team practice in which they are critically observed.

FYI... Cadet David McCulloch attempts to clearly explain the complex movements that go into a working session for the Drill Team.

Don't blink! The Drill Team hold themselves in concentrated poses throughout practice in order to show their true stamina. Remember, don't lock your knees.

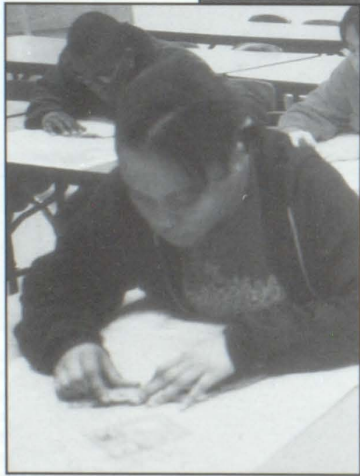

JROTC MISSION:

To motivate young people to be better Americans.

Ready, aim...

During a routine Rifle Team practice, Michael Reeves uses a gallant pose to take aim at his practice target. We hope the target isn't one of his fellow classmates. All of the bystanders watch nervously as he attempts to impress the ladies by displaying his manly skills. Maybe this practice session will score him a date in the future for the Military Ball.

Pinpoint Accuracy...

Senior Shundrika Draper practices her orienteering skills on basic map layouts given to her. These skills are useful when going on retreats into unknown territory.

Stars and Stripes...

Cadets in the JROTC Color Guard neatly fold the United States Flag. It is an important symbol of the JROTC Battalion.

Into position... Cadet Amanda Ford prepares to fire a pellet rifle down the Rifle Range. Cadets also fire these rifles in competitions conducted by the Mustang Battalion's Rifle Team.

We're the Best! The distinguished members of the Battalion, cadets Ladorian Latin and Cliff Gillespie, Principal Mary Rounds, and the Veteran's Day Guest of Honor, Lt. Col. (ret) Roberts, recognize Magnet's JROTC program by proudly marching during the Veteran's Day ceremony.

We've Got Pride. Cadets Tiffany Garner, Blessing Enyenihi, Cheryl Brooks, and Dominique Sibley sing the Pledge of Allegiance at an auditorium assembly.

A Thousand Thanks... Brigade Commander, Cliff Gillespie, presents to Mrs. Borne a certificate of appreciation for the PTSA's support for the Veteran's Day ceremony.

Actions Speak Louder Than Words... Cadets salute their fellow Senior ROTC Cadets for a job well done throughout their entire high school career.

Attention... Westly Lafitte attempts to remain cool under pressure during a nerve-racking inspection.

On Guard! Senior Jennifer Cockburn lunges towards her opponent as she sees an opportunity to score points.

A Couple Favorites! A Few of Sett's favorite seniors get together to take a picture for Sett at one of the meets. There's a special place in Mama Sett's heart for her seniors.

Andy Shaw gives a Short Lesson!! Fencing Crash Course: Size doesn't matter. Age doesn't matter. Fencing is a game of the mind. Whether young or old, short or tall, you can fence. In this world of physical chess, the only losers are those who sell themselves short (no pun intended). Like any other sport, practice makes perfect so grab your "sword" and rulebook and head to one of the many tournaments held locally. Drop by fencing class sixth hour and fence with the self-proclaimed "real fencers." No matter what, always remember...

It's not the size of the dog in the fight, it's the size of the fight in the dog.

Epee

Evelyn Scarborough

"Epee is more about practicality rather than technique."

Branson Boykin

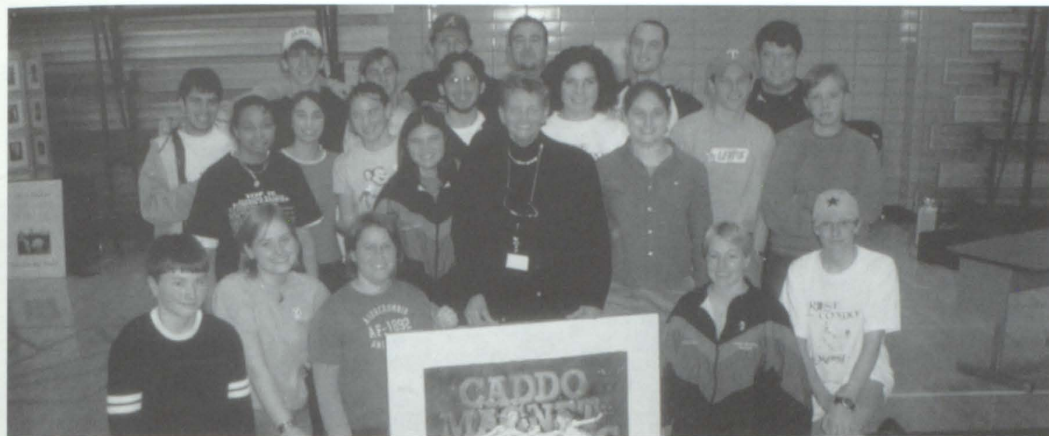

"That's why epee is so much better than foil and sabre - because it's REAL."

Jennifer Clayton

"If you took the bell guard off an epee and stopped the hole, you could eat cereal out of it."

Fencing

On Guard!! Junior Erin Falbaum fences a bout at a tournament. Magnet fencers really put Shreveport on the map!

Dazed and Confused!! Senior Jeremy Hawthorne and Junior Jess Angle take a time out to get a quick refresher course from Sett! Go team!!

No Hard Feelings!! Onekia Blakely and Tiffany Jackson bury the hatchet with a hug after a tough bout.

And The Winner is!! Senior Evelyn Scarborough wins recieves a trophy for beating down the competition.

by Brad and Sarah D.

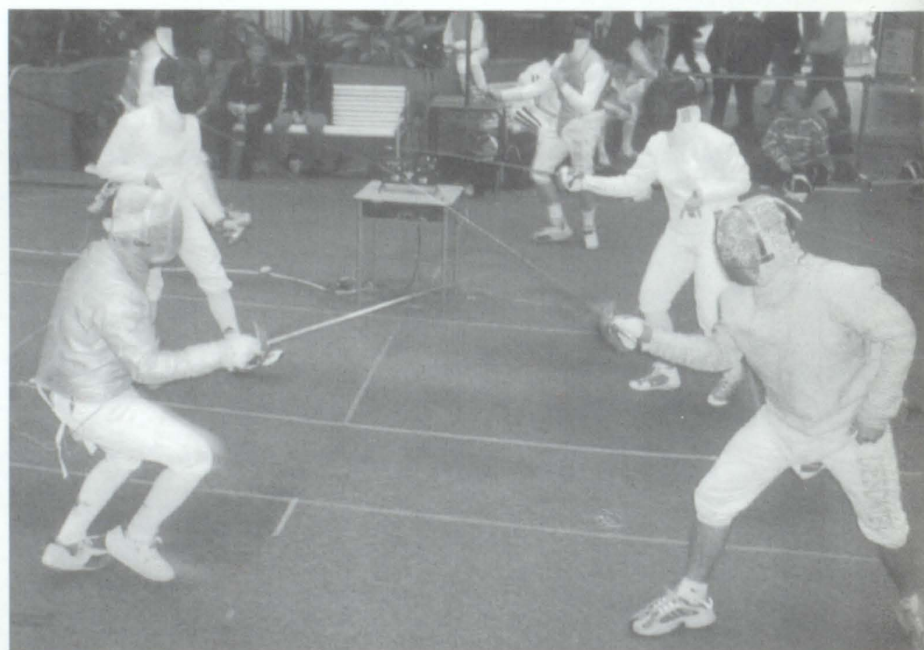

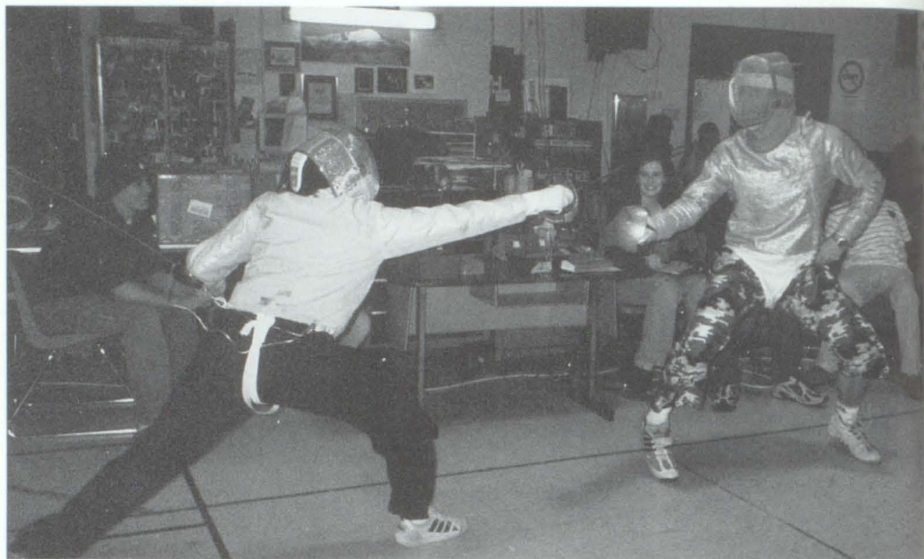

Caddo Magnet Fencing!! Caddo Magnet High School's fencers awarded Ms. Settlemyer a signed poster in honor of her twenty-one years at Magnet. Each fencer included a farewell message to Ms. Settlemyer.

Make Way! Watch out JC Penney customers! The fencers competed in Pierre Bossier Mall as a way to make the community aware of what fencing is about. It really caught the costumers' attention, having to walk around this event of "sword fighting."

Watch me! Michelle Thomas tries to stay concentrated on practicing rather than on Jack Harkey's wild pants as she fights him. Other fencing members watch in amusement.

Leathal Weapon 3! The Foil, Epee, and Sabre were all fought at the same time during the Pierre Bossier Mall demonstration. A touch anywhere on the body counts in Epee, while Foil and Sabre have specific touch zones.

Sabre

Don't mess with Captain INSANE-O!

Jarrad McMillan

It's like a mental chess game. You have to outwit the other player, draw them in
and get them when they least expect it.

Jennifer Cockburn

ON the strip, I'm an animal. GRRR!!

James Desonier

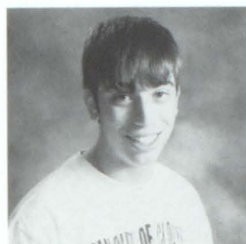

Foil

Lindsey Lewis

Forget right-of-way, I got the touch.

Anthony Hernandez

"The sword is mightier than the pen."
Fencing is more of a mind sport than a physical sport.

Michelle Thomas

Foil is like sabre, only in slow motion.

CJ Cangelosi and Evelyn Scarborough

"It's called a blade... Swords are sooo last century."

Left: What doesn't kill freshmen, can only make them sophomores... "Hey Freshmen, met my friend Mr. PVC. Oh, it's your birthday little boy??"

"Try to avoid brawls, Grant don't have no busted foot."

Onekia Blakely and Jeremy Hawthorne

Right: There's more to life than The Princess Bride... "There's something you don't know, I'm not left handed!!"

"A beat, is a sharp, spanking action."

Right: It's a mask, not a helmet.
And they aren't optional...
"You'll poke your eye out!!"

"Fencing tools are not for play.
Those things hurt."

Left: Yes you have to wear knickers... "The underclassmen haven't figured that out yet. Jeans, shorts--they'll never learn."

Dimitri Zaugg and Vanna Richardson

"We're still reeling from Junior Olympics... Don't even mention fencing."

Below: The scorekeepers aren't out to get you... "That's not a shock from the lights, that's me beating the fool out of you!!"

Thanks, Ms. Settlemyre, for 22 great years...

"CONSIDER EDUCATION NOT AS THE PAINFUL ACCUMULATION OF FACTS AND DATES AND REIGNS, NOR MERELY THE NECESSARY PREPARATION OF THE INDIVIDUAL TO EARN HIS KEEP IN THE WORLD, BUT AS THE TRANSMISSION OF OUR MENTAL, MORAL, TECHNICAL, AND AESTHETIC HERITAGE AS FULLY AS POSSIBLE TO AS MANY AS POSSIBLE, FOR THE ENLARGEMENT OF MAN'S UNDERSTANDING, CONTROL, EMBELLISHMENT, AND ENJOYMENT OF LIFE." -- WILL AND ARIEL DURANT

One plus one equals two. An attack is a forward moving action of the blade. Two wrongs don't make a right. All of these are part of a person's education. Being truly educated means that not only do you possess academic knowledge, but the knowledge of how to live as well. A great teacher inspires in a student a desire to learn while also encouraging them to use that desire in life. Sharon Settlemyre has been inspiring students for thirty years. She is a successful teacher because she reaches out to every student with her love of fencing. Her emphasis is simply having fun. With this principle she built a fencing program that still continues to bring great respect to Caddo Magnet High School. In the fencing world, Magnet fencers are recognized for their comradery and integrity, not only for how high they place. This can only come from a respected, giving leader. Ms. Sett incorporates those qualities into teaching, promoting students to become respected, giving leaders themselves. Already she has impacted many freshmen, sophomores, and juniors who will be sad to see her leave, however, they should be refreshed in knowing that while Caddo Magnet Fencing will not ever be quite the same, it will always stand as a model of what an inspiring teacher can accomplish. Thank you, Ms. Sett, as we are sure your past twenty-two Magnet classes will agree, for making our Magnet education complete.

With Love and Best Wishes,
Evelyn Scarborough and your other Fencing students

Congratulations, Lady Mustangs!
They have won more games this year than the past three years combined! Keep up the good work, ladies!

Girls' Softball

Take Me Out To The Ball Game . . . Sophomores Sarah Day and Janet Murray await their turns to hit a home room.

Heads Up!! Maryanne Hill, junior, throws the ball to first base. Have no fear--she did get the girl out!

Batters Up! Sarah Shelton, freshman, is ready for the perfect pitch so that she can put the ball out of the park!

Get Her Out! Rae Ann Garza, freshman, waits by third base for the second base runner, but she never comes. Her softball team is so good; they get all the girls out on first!

Girls' Softball by Megan

Officers! Jenny Bell, Amanda Beauregard, Lauren Sowell, Jacob Dickson, and Yoni Platt

The Few, the Proud, the BOYS! Tim Emge, Jacob Dickson, Derrick Cain, Phillip Scott, Yoni Platt, and Philip Gates

What About the Girls? Row 1 Heather Polk, Brandy Blanchard, Celeste Kendrick, Jenny Bell, Melanie Allen, Lauren Westbrook, Lindsay Kiefer Row 2 Nikki Norvell, Allison Moore, Julia Gates, Marcia Forrest, Amanda Beauregard, Lauren Sowell, Cory Goodwin Row 3 Onyx Musgrove, Jodie Dupuy, Shante Bradford, Nina Walker, Erin Middleton

Balance is Key! Sophomore Erin Middleton shows an important flexibility and balance element on the balance beam. She is in the process of refining her beam routine for an upcoming meet. In order to compete on beam, one must have extremely good focus and determination.

Lauren Westbrook

Lauren Westbrook is a very hard worker and an asset to our team. She's a great person to be on team with.

Celeste Kendrick

Amanda Beauregard

I enjoy being on team with Amanda because of her personality and persistence. Her liveliness always brightens up the team.

Lindsay Kiefer

Julia Gates

In my opinion, Julia is a very determined person in and out of the gym. She always works hard and gives everything her all.

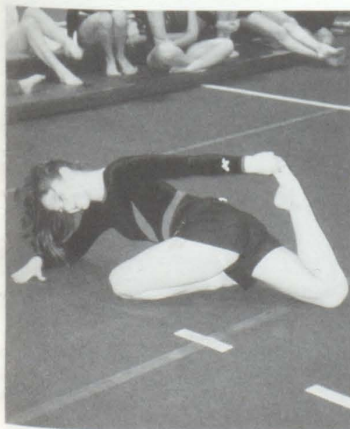

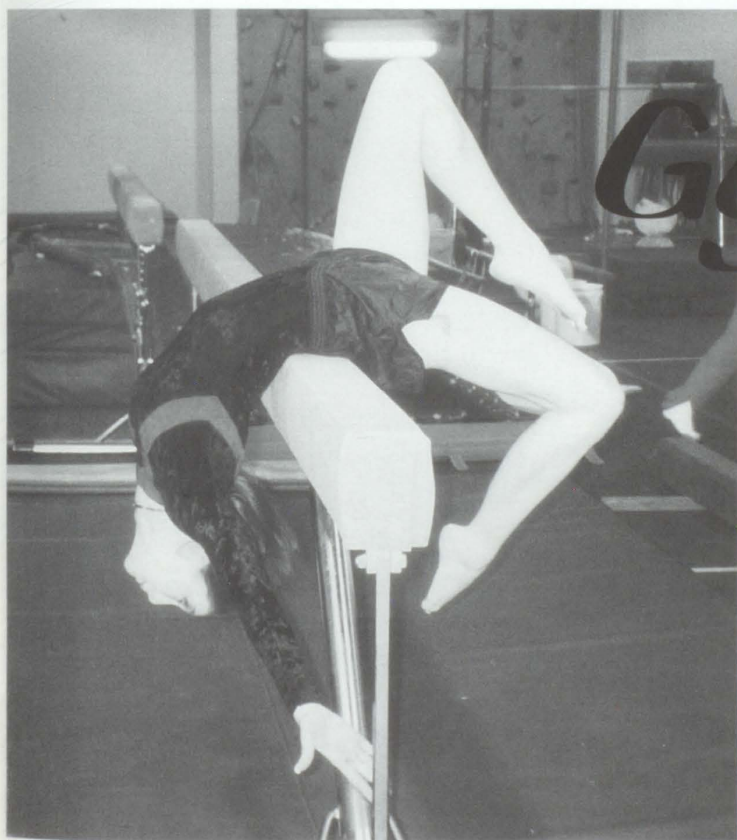

Jenny Bell

Gymnastics

Workin' the Beam! Junior Jenny Bell prepares for her beam routine in this difficult and dazzling position.

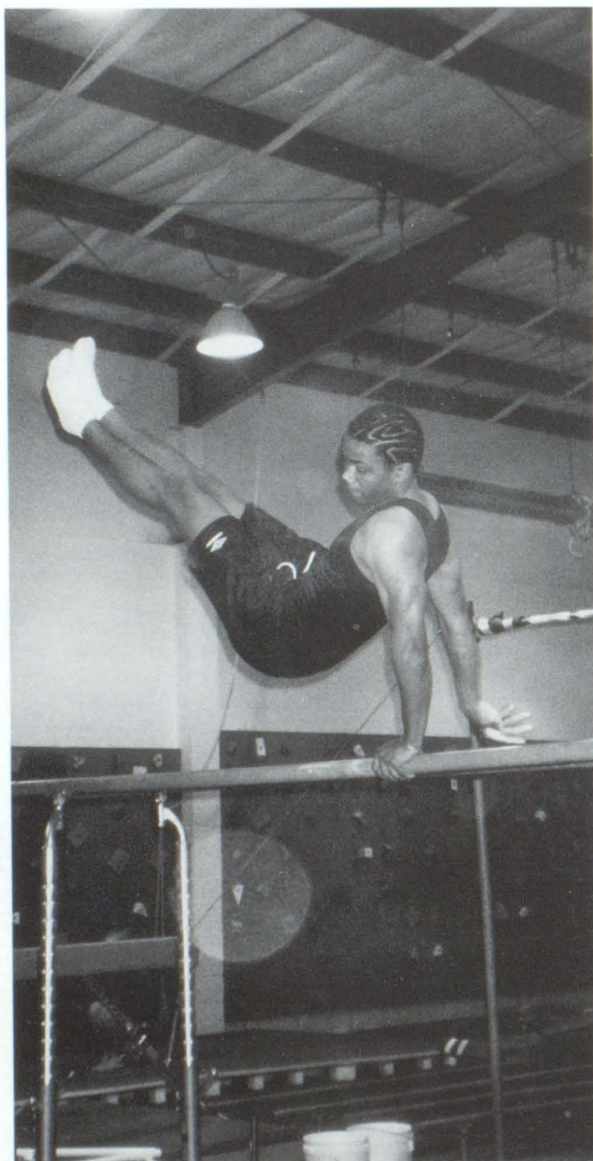

Arrrghhh! Sophomore Yoni Platt performs a difficult move on the rings. It may look easy but it takes the strength of a jungle cat.

Watch This! Sophomore Lauren Sowell exhibits her gymnast's flexibility during her floor routine.

Just Hangin'! Junior Tim Emge is just hangin' around on the high bar. This, too, requires an enormous amount of skill.

Watch my landing! Senior Derrick Cain preforms his routine on the parallel bars. This is one of the five events that boys compete in.

Practice makes perfect! Sophomore Nina Walker practices on the balance beam. The beam is a mere four inches wide, thus making executing maneuvers extremely difficult.

Upside down and inside out! Sophomore Phillip Scott is about to show all you folks what it's all about. Here, he shows a flexibility and strength exercise.

Faster than a SPEEDING BULLET! Sophomore Philip Gates ricochets off the vault in his front handspring.

Caddo Magnet Golf Team

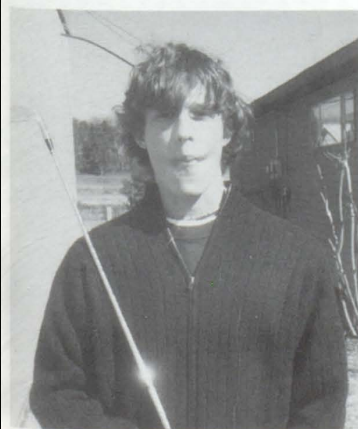

Row 1 - Ryan Strickland, Brent Barrow, Michael Ameen, Chad Santos, and Kevin Dunkijacobsnolten.

Row 2 - Andrew Patton, David Strickland, and Taylor Russell.

Good Luck, Boys!

Golf Team

What a swing!! Golf member Chad Santos, junior, is preparing for a shot straight down the middle of the fairway. Good going, Chad!

You got game!! Working hard, or hardly working? Sophomore Taylor Russell stops during a strenuous game of golf to show off his "game."

What the...!! Hey, that's no golf player! This cooky kid is sophomore Patrick Fess. Though he's not on the team, he still can't get enough of the game.

Nice Form!! This pro of a golf player is Senior Brent Barrow. He is always up for a friendly challenge on the greens...maybe next time, Brent!

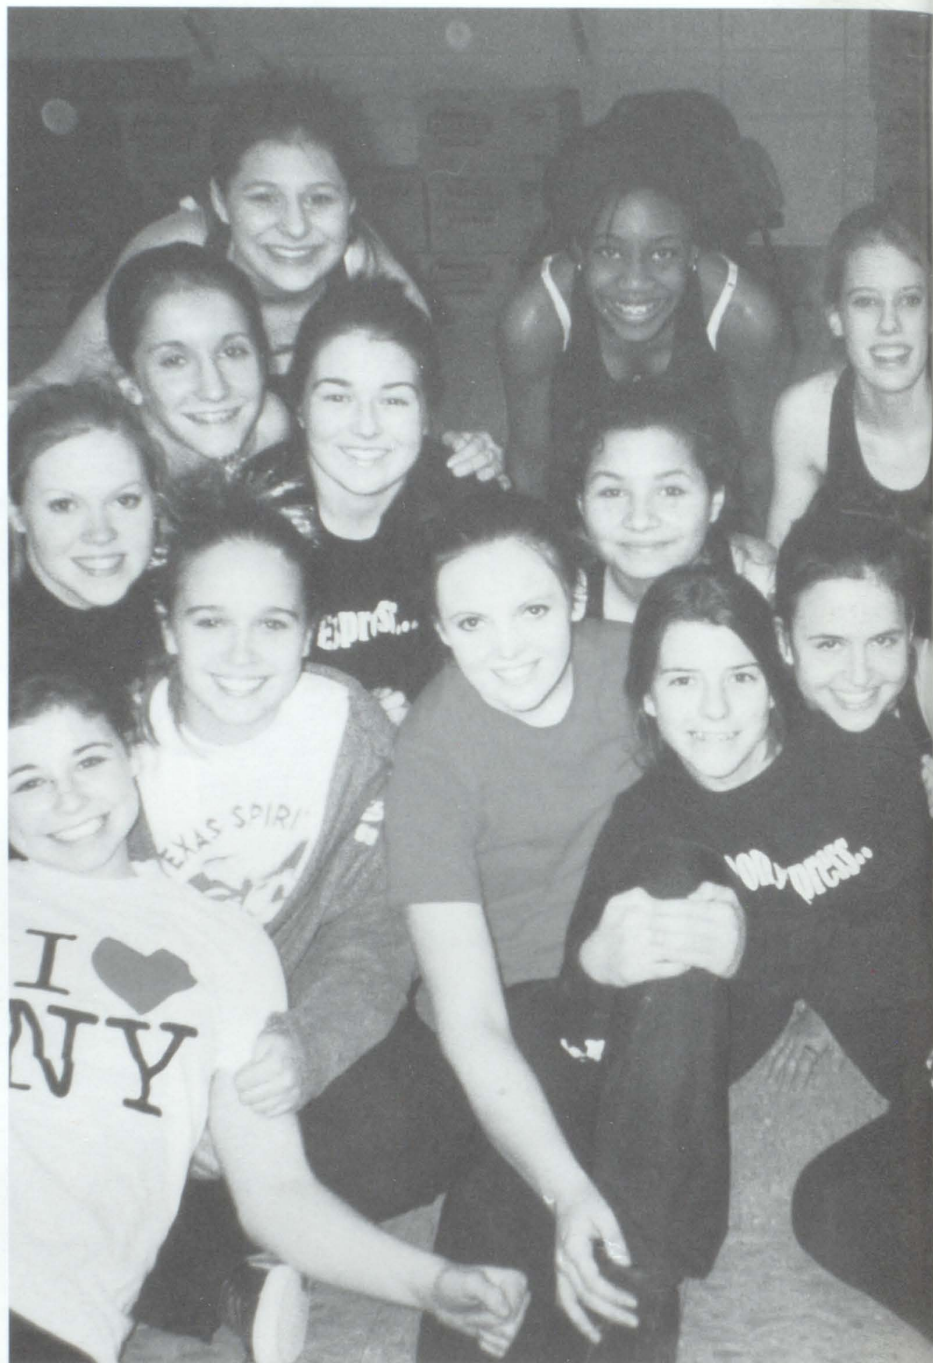

Just a Touch of Love. Ashley McDaniel and Melissa Howard show off those beautiful make-up jobs right before they jump on stage.

Dancing the Night Away. A Pony Express rehearsal is no small task. It's not easy being a part of danceline, and it takes a lot of dedication.

Two Pretty Ladies. Stopping to take a picture is certainly no big deal for these two photogenic gals, Raven Bryson and Sheena Kelley.

Time Out! These busy dancing chicks pause to snap a quick picture amid their exhausting rehearsal. Mrs. McKellar certainly keeps these girls busy and well-trained for the public eye.

Terrica Wilson

Terrica Wilson is such a role model for me. She always tries hard, regardless of the kind of day she's had or mood she's in; she's such a sweetie.

- Ashley West,
junior

Raven Bryson

Whenever I need encouragement, Raven Bryson is always there to cheer me up. She is one of the most supportive girls on the team.

- Ashley McDaniel,
junior

Grace McKellar

Mrs. Michelle's daughter comes on all of our trips. Her persistent attitude makes me want to kick higher and stronger.

- Melissa Howard,

Row 3 Sarah Johnson, Terrica Wilson, Megan Vaughn, Melissa Howard, Ashley West

Pony Express

Who's nervous? (top left) These experienced danceline girls definitely never get stage fright or the jitters, right girls?

Ouch! These Pony Express members show off their flexibility all at the same time. Better be careful getting up...

Strike a Pose! Even in the middle of another tiring rehearsal there is always time for a good photo op.

What the..!? Alicia Grisham tries crawfish for the first time on a competition trip. Maybe they should've thrown that one back.

The Danceline by Ryan

Ouch?! Not really. Carla Williams, Shannon Meyers, Kim Kelly, and Erin Dorsey are used to the splits, so it hurts less every time they do them.

Dance the Day Away Kim Kelly and Carla Williams show their beautiful smiles while on the competition trip to San Antonio.

It's Christmas Time in the City... Holly Minard, Claire Roberts, and Mary Margaret Gilbert spend a little time with some inner city kids during Christmas time. They first danced for them, then shared candy and toys with them.

Hey, how 'bout a massage?! Carla Williams, Kim Kelly, Claire Roberts, Ashley Risinger, and Jennifer Taylor give each other back massages while waiting at a restaurant in San Antonio. I'm sure they enjoyed it, being so sore after dancing!

Holly Minard

"I like being on danceline with my twin sister because it gives us an excuse to spend time together. It can be really fun- except when people mix us up"
Jessica Minard

Carla Williams

"Carla is the most encouraging person on JV because of her good spirits and positive attitude. She's always there if something goes wrong, to motivate and make everyone on the squad feel like family."
Claire Roberts and Ashley Risinger

Kim Kelly

"The whole team has been doing so well this year, practicing all we can. Kim Kelly and I have been working together, especially, to become the best we can at what we love to do- DANCE!"
Shannon Bogan

JO Danceline

Dancin' Darlins

Yeah, we should be practicing... Kim Kelly and Shannon Bogan take a break from practice to show their beautiful smiles. One of the best things about danceline is the great relationships the girls form.

Stylin' in the Sweats- Mary Margaret Gilbert and Claire Roberts show off their Pony Express sweatshirts- one of the benefits of being on the team.

All Stars! These girls participated in Centenary All Star Camp over the summer and won the Grand Sweepstakes Award. And that was just when they were getting started!

JV Danceline by Sarah Rubben

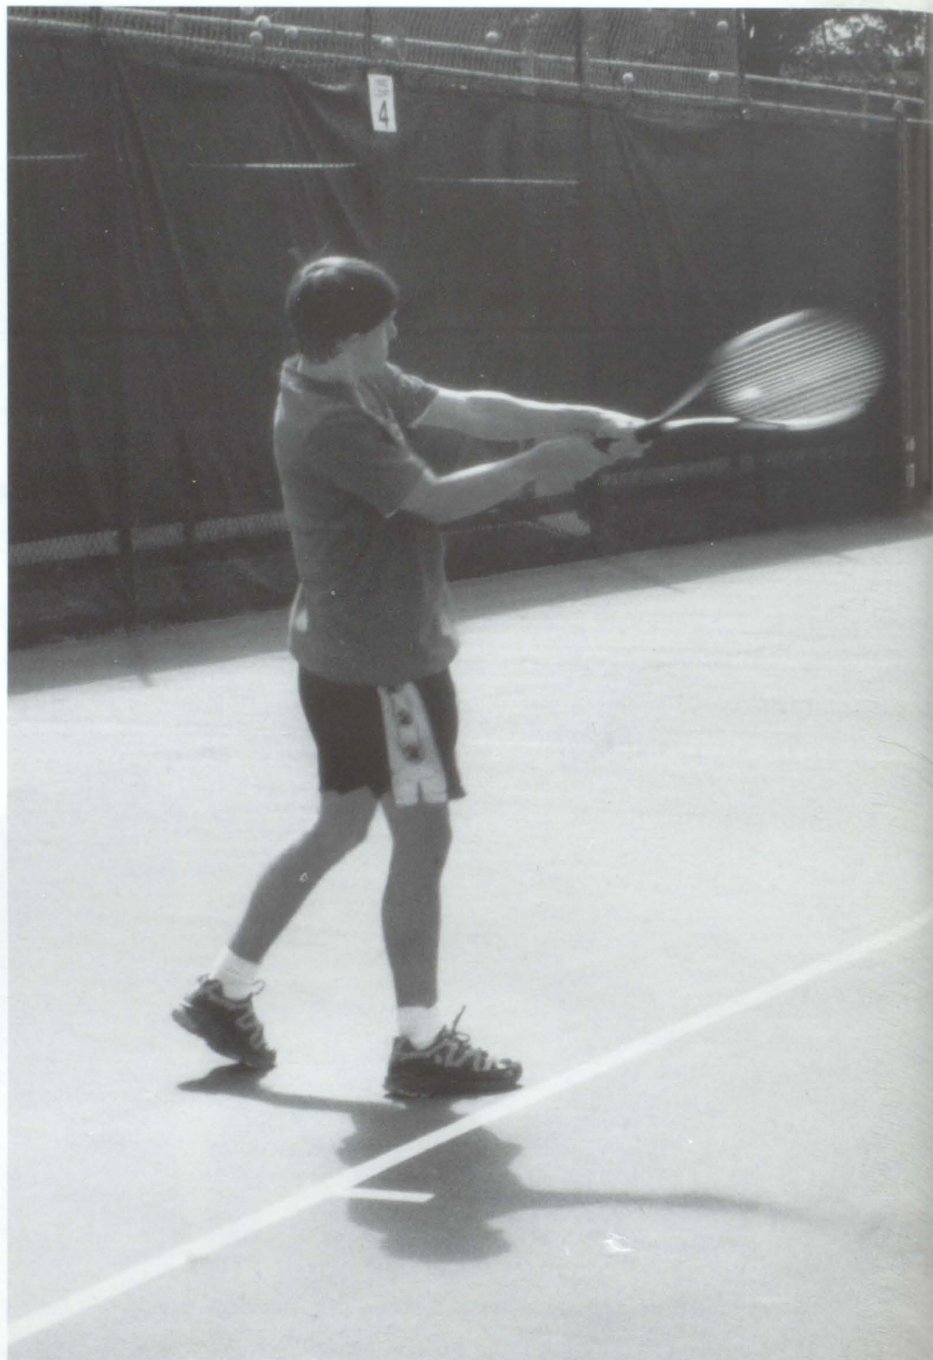

Pre match... Juniors Renee Goudeau and Carolin Oetzel pose for a quick picture before they leave for one of the tennis matches. Every player's favorite part is the excused absences from sixth hour!

Bring It On!!! Sophomore Alexa Persson gets ready to start off her match. You can almost smell the intimidation!!!

Taking a Quick Break....Senior Erin Woods, Juniors Renee Goudeau and Natalie Timpa take a quick water break in between a match. It get's awfully hot out there.

Back Hand... Junior tennis team player Ben Foster, sets up his famous back hand to win the match. Ben usually plays doubles with his partner Chad Santos. They are the greatest.

Katherine Hiller,
freshman

I was so excited when I came to Magnet because playing tennis is a big deal here. A lot of my friends play and it's just a good way to relax.

Taylor Russell,
sophomore

Tennis team is the best. I mean you get to miss school to go play in the matches. What crazy person wouldn't want to miss school to play tennis?

Betsy Smith,
freshman

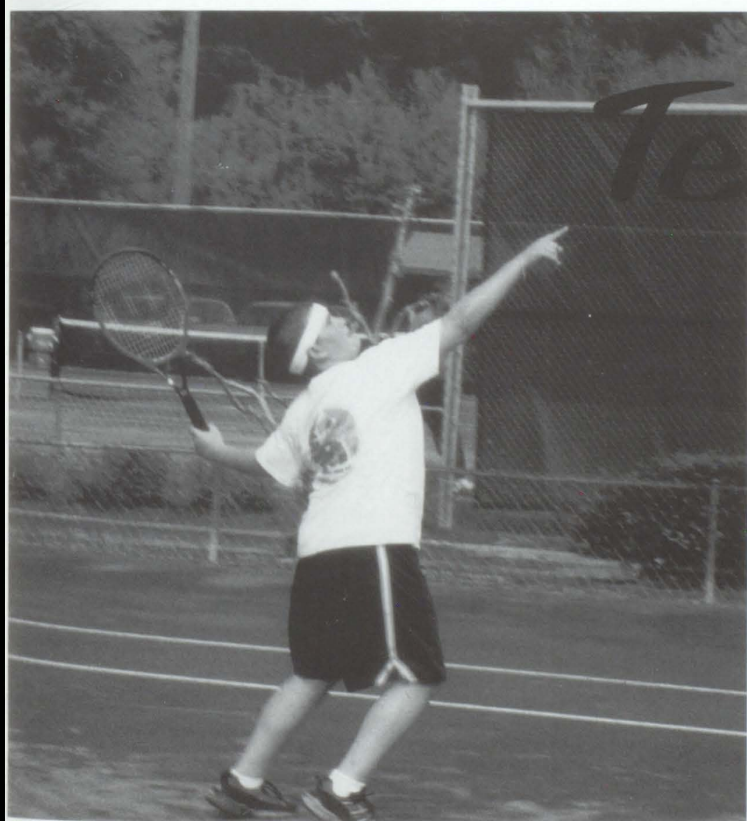

This is my first year of serious tennis. Playing with Mrs. Woolbert has been the greatest. I can't wait for next year when I'll be even better than I am now.

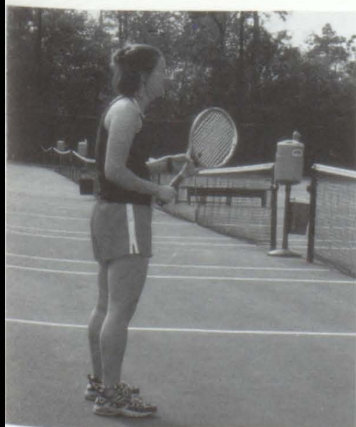

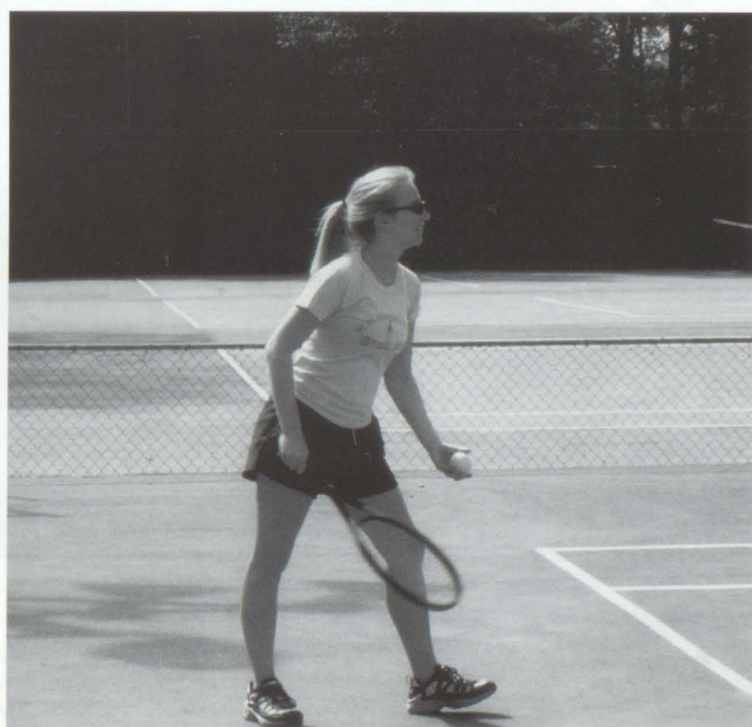

Girls Tennis Team

Row 1: Tiffany Harris, Sheri Fitzgerald, Blair Bryan, Thanmaya Reddy, Alexia Persson, Renee Goudeau, Leslie Strickland

 Row 4: Stacy Palczynski, Suzanne Dale, Betsy Smith, Laura Williamson, Katie Pratt, Melody Kiper, Emily Wilkerson, Rene Reid, Monica Mutyala

Tennis Team

Match Point!!! Freshman David Yancey shows off his skills while warming up for a tough match ahead. Did he win? Probably so, we always do!

Great Serve... Junior Natalie Timpa concentrates really hard on her technique for her killer serve. I mean, can't you just see the killer instinct in those determined eyes???

READY?!?! Junior Talyor Robertson gets ready for any volley that comes to her on the net. Are you ready, Taylor???

First Class Managers... Juniors Emily Comegys and Leigh Ann Pennywell prefer to do the managing of the team instead of playing. We certainly appreciate you girls.

by Jessica and Bekah

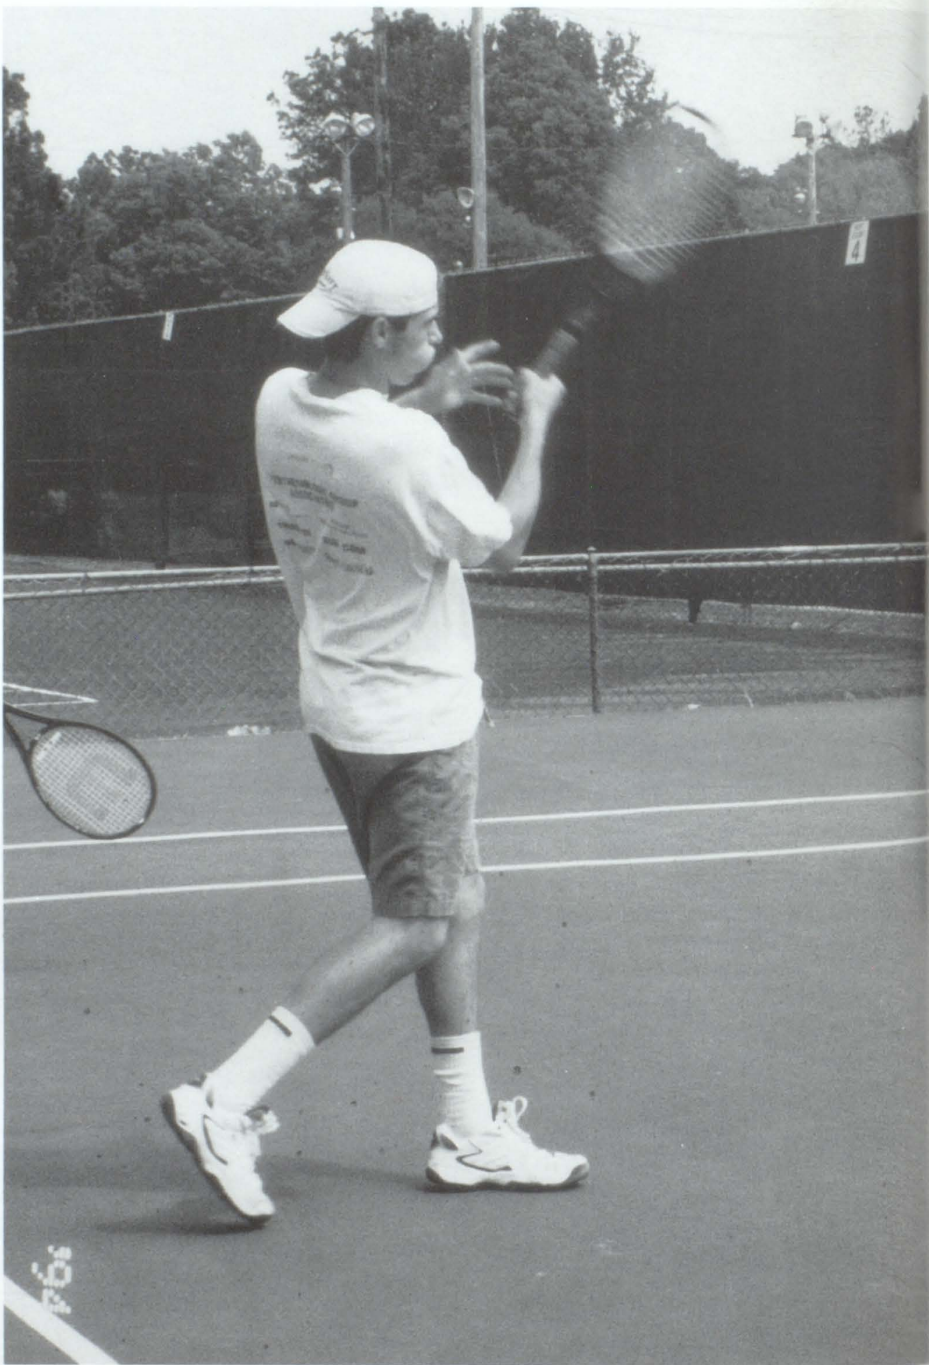

Scoping Out The Opponent... Sophomore John Payne waits to be matched up with his opponent. Tennis can also be a mind game, he's trying to psych out the other player.

Forty/Love... Freshman Elizabeth Dickinson returns a great shot from a Southwood opponent. Good shot Elizabeth!

New Dance??? As you can see, Freshman Boris Cehajic looks like he's on the way to creating a new dance or something of the sort. Or maybe he's just playing tennis his own way?

It's Been Great!!! Our famous tennis team member, Russ Patrick, is a senior this year. Russ enjoys playing both singles and doubles matches. He has had a great four years, and we wish him luck in his future of tennis. Great job, Russ!

Row 5: Chris Booth, Jordan Edwards, Russ Patrick, Jonathan Walsh, Paul Babineaux, Douglas Mata, Patrick Fess, Taylor Russel

The Best Of Friends...Sophomores Henry Hilario and Suzanne Dale just finished a good match of mixed doubles.

Russ and Coach... Senior Russ Patrick and Mrs. Woolbert take a moment to take a picture before practicing during sixth-hour.

Just waiting to play... Senior Sheri Fitzgerald and Juniors Chad Santos and Ben Foster all wait for Mrs. Woolbert to give them a match to play.

FOCUS is the key... Freshman Lauren Barron's attention is easily distracted by the game going on next to her instead of the game she should be playing herself!!!

Cool Shoes!!! Freshman Kemerton Hargrove sports the managable yet stylish velcro shoes at his tennis match. Maybe they give him good luck?!

201

4 bits, 6 bits, 8 bits a dollar! Senior Derek Davis and sophomore Edwin Noland fight for first place at the state meet. This shows that seniors and sophomores can work hand in hand to accomplish great things.

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y! The Varsity boys are in need of a shower after winning 2nd in District meet. They truly are champions in each of their mothers' hearts.

Go for the Gold! These boys are celebrating after winning 1st place at the Sarepta Invitational. They will add this trophy to all of the others they won during the 2001-2002 season.

Sweat proof!! Sophomore Robert Nash concentrates on the last leg of the Benton Invitational. Hopefully, he knows that his shoelace is untied, and he won't trip. Judging by the face he's making, the only thing he can think of is finishing one more race on the quest of life.

Will Markham

I'll never forget those fall cross country practices watching Will Markham run around the track in Wrangler jeans and cowboy boots. I must say it was a sight!

-Derek Davis

Westly Lafitte

Westly Lafitte claims to be the fastest member of this year's team, but he's not... I am. If we raced, man to man, I would win. Together, we can win every game next season.

-Kenneth Cooley

Joseph Hubley

Joseph Hubley runs to get a runner's high.

He knows the exhilaration of a race can be detrimental to his breathing skills, so he must be prepared to keep up the pace.

Row 2: Robert Nash, Jeff Smith, Tarik King

Boys' Cross Country

The Running Man!! Captain Westly Lafitte was voted MVP for the 2001-2002 season. He also placed 2nd team all-district.

Follow the Leader!! Sophomore Joseph Hubley works hard to make Magnet proud. Thanks, Joseph, for one more reason to call Magnet home.

Don't give up now!! Junior Greg Kintzing's attention darts off course for a moment, just long enough to allow Byrd to get ahead of him at the Benton Invitational.

Game Faces!! The Varsity boys gear up for the state meet. They are determined to take home the state trophy.

You go girl!! Junior Chanelle McCoy runs her heart out across this pastoral scene during a meet.

Leader of the pack. Junior Blessing Enyenihi sprints across the field with great celerity. Her stamina pays off when she crosses the finish line.

She's a brick house... Junior Taylor Robertson finishes her run with a great victory; she made first team all-district!

I love cross country! It provides stress relief that I definitely need after a terribly long day at school, and I love the way I feel after a long run.

- Holly Nagle

The main reason I am on the cross country team, besides the self-satisfaction I get from exercising, is because the uniforms are so hip and cool.

- Taylor Robertson

I like cross country because Mrs. Ormond is awesome, and the guys cross country team consists of really cute boys!

- Megan Gil

The Team...

Taylor Robertson, Emily Comegys, Blessing Enyenihi, Leah Antipolo, Chanelle McCoy, Megan Gill, and Holly Nagle.

Caddo Magnet Girls Cross Country team was one of the top finishing teams in the Natchitoches, Shreveport, and Bossier area.

Girls' Cross-Country

Kickin' some asphalt. Leah Antipolo, a junior cross country runner leaps to finish line with a look of determination on her face.

Final Stretch!! Junior Emily Comegys makes her way to the front of the pack. The expression on her face shows how much she wants the gold.

Piece of cake! Freshman Holly Nagle sprints out of the woods at the back of the field; it's all smooth sailing from here.

Workin' up a sweat. Junior Caroline Canfield smirks as she finishes in front of the other runners. Way to go!

Running against the wind! Blessing Enyenihi fights to reach the finish line in a track competition. Notice her complete focus and concentration.

Just one of the guys! Junior track star Blessing Enyenihi hangs and ponders the future with members of the Magnet boy's track team.

Racing against time! Megan Gill hurries to cross the finish line first - a quite obvious goal of a track member.

Reach for the sky!! Need a high jumper? Magnet's very own Brittany Willis proves that she's got what it takes to reach far and follow her dreams. Notice how she gives it her all during a competition for girl's track.

Monique Brown

Monique Brown is one of the goofiest girls on the team. It's amazing how she can still give her all when running on a hurt knee. That's dedication.

- Blessing Enyenihi

Brittany Willis

When we need a good sprinter, Brittany Willis is our girl. She is such an amazing runner and is one of the most dedicated members of the team.

-Caroline Canfield

Blessing Enyenihi

I love being on the team with Blessing Enyenihi because she is so enthusiastic about track. She is very committed and is fun to be around.

by Julie M.

Gather around! The boys track team huddles together to give each other encouragement before the big run at the district meet. We hope the pep talks worked.

Up to speed! Junior Greg Kintzing and sophomore Robert Nash run the 1600 meter race at the Byrd Track Meet. It looks like both boys are advancing steadily to ensure a place on the podium.

Speedy Gonzales! Sophomore Joseph Hubley outruns his opponent from Bryd in the 3200 meter run at Byrd's Shreveport Relays. Look at the other runners waaaaaaay back there.

Going the distance... Tenth grader Robert Nash crosses the start/finish line during the 3200 meter run. With those long legs Robert is sure to finish ahead of the other runners. That smile on his face must mean that he knows he is doing a fabulous job.

Westly Lafitte

Westly is an exceptional runner who uses all of his skills in every match he participates in. His high spirits keep the rest of the team motivated.
-Daniel Senn

Robert Nash

Robert has improved rapidly throughout the year. He had a slow and steady start, but he is now one of the fastest guys on the team.

-Edwin Noland

Kenneth Cooley

My friend, Kenneth, is an exceptional runner and a great asset to the team. He is always a practice and in a ready-to-win mode. Losing is not an option for him.

Boys Track

Rising Star!! Princeton Lewis may only be a freshman, but he already has the ability to keep up with the rest of the pack. Looks like we have a future multi-medal winner on our hands.

Above and beyond!! Freshman Alonzo Jackson shows his shot put skills at the Captain Shreve Relay Meet.

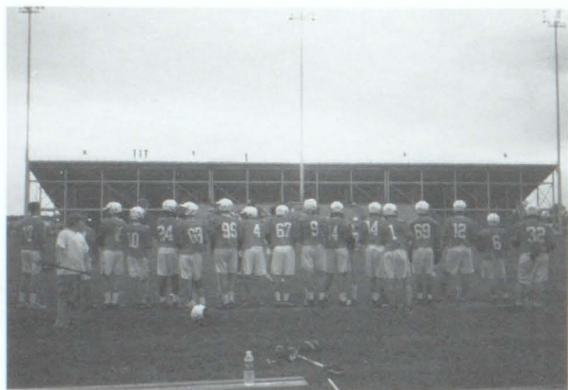

Fast and furious!! Junior Daniel Senn zooms down the track furiously in an attempt to be the fastest.

Pass it on!! Senior William Markham continues the relay race by accepting the relay stick from his teammate.

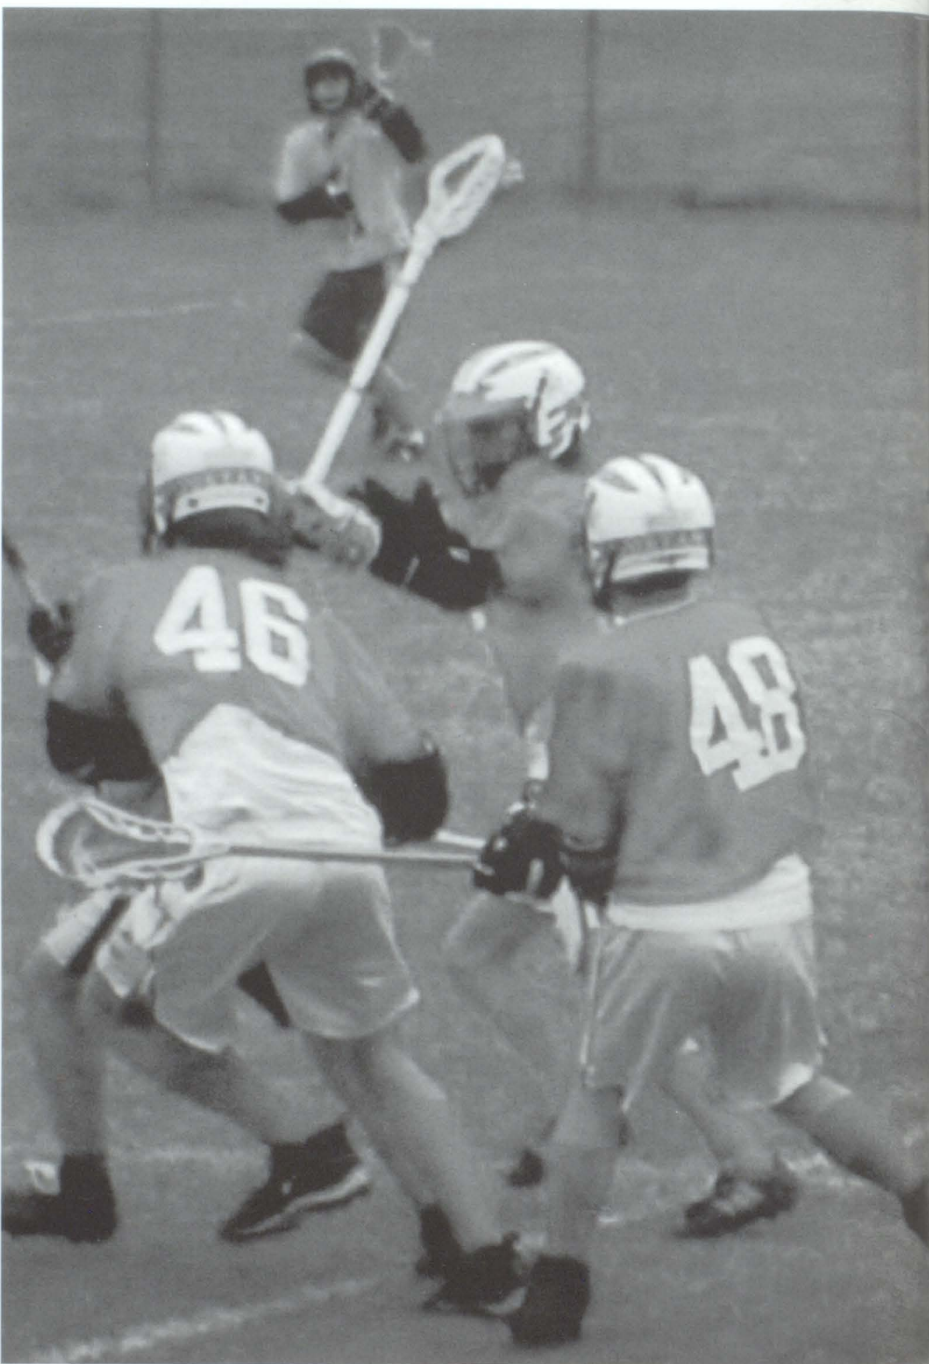

Behind The Scenes. If you've ever wondered what the watergirl's view of a lacrosse game was, here it is. I don't think the boys worry about having a problem finding one.

1! 2! 3! MUSTANGS! The boys get pumped up before another hot game at Caddo Stadium.

Bring It! Tension rises as Magnet starts the game in perfect form. WATCH OUT BYRD!

No Pain, No Gain! Our Lacrosse boys take the game back by stealing the ball from an unsuspecting Byrd player. He better be a good cradler, because if not, the game goes to Red!

Ret Thigpen

Ret is CRAZY! I'm not kidding--he is disturbed.

Girls' LaCrosse

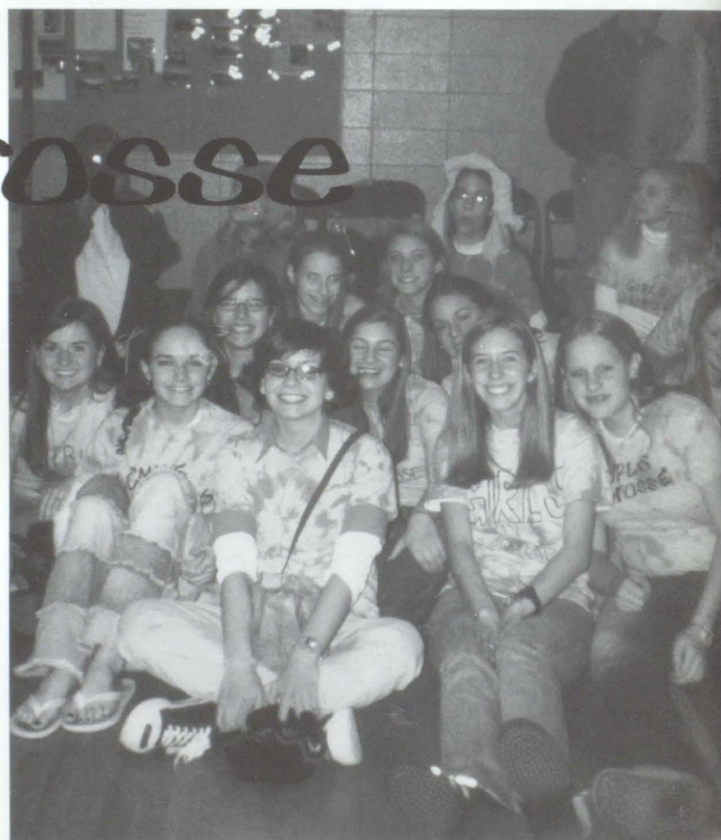

Get Your Bottoms Down! Trena Edwards, freshman, scoops the ball just in time before the defending team got it. Way to back her up, Heather Joe!

Pretty Players in Pink. The Girls' LaCrosse Team, in their awesome tie-dyed shirts, wait to be announced at the Mardi Gras Spirit Rally.

Charge!! Katie Cordaro, senior, makes a break-away and charges towards the goal.

Dominate!! Melissa Dixon, senior, checks an opponent to try and gain control of the ball.

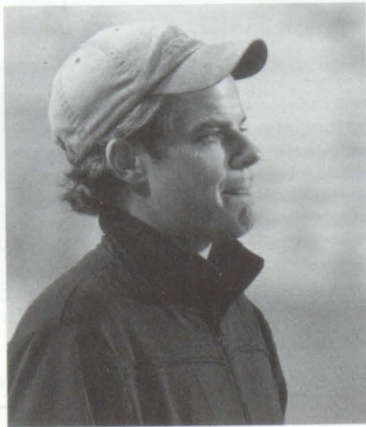

Row 1: Coach Greg Noblet, Jacquelyn Broussard, Nina Elliott, Catherine Hiller, Lindsey Horne, Ashley Eaves, Georgette Lang, Elizabeth Dickinson, Elyse Kent.

Row 2: Kelly Walsh, Amanda Giles, Elizabeth Robinson, Lindsay Harter, Mary Coburn, and Leslie Strickland.

Girls' JV Soccer

Think Fast!! Nina Elliott passes the ball to a teammate during a tournament game.

I'm Frozen. Some JV players sit on the bench and watch through the fog as they slaughter yet another team.

AHH!! Ashley Eaves is surprised by an opponent who just ran into her. Mean while, Laurie Strickland dribbles through the entire team.

Speech, Speech... Coach Wes Rawlings tries to decide what to say in his half-time speech.

by Julie R., Jessica, and Susan

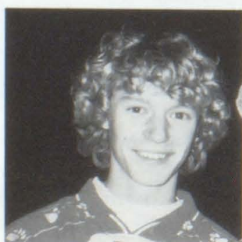

Don't mess with fire! You might get burned! JV Players Dustin Glenn, Trey Wessler, Josh Blewitt, Daniel Gehrig, Patrick Fess, and Adam Mastrodomenico bring the heat on the soccer field!

Work as a Team! William Andress, Adam Mastrodomenico, and John Cockburn unite to form the phenomenal force known as JV soccer!

Men of Honor. JV Boys, Alex Ramos, Hart Grozinger, Adam Mastrodomenico, Trevor Johnson, Chris Bryan, and William Andress are sporting their medals of gold at the soccer banquet.

The Man with a Plan. As the boys soccer sponsor, Mr. Nadeau always goes above and beyond the call of duty! He never misses a game and always brings his smile. Not to mention he is a fabulous math teacher! Go M Nadeau...woohoo!

Philip Gates

He has a fabulous flip throw! Not to mention those golden locks....he must deep condition!

Hart Grozinger

Dustin Glenn

The fun never stops when Dustin is around! Whether we're on a road trip or at a game, he's just a great guy!

Josh Blewitt

Chris Bryan and William Andress

Chris and Will are two crazy kids who know how to have a good time! They always bring their soccer skills to the table!

Trey Wessler

Coach: Nate McAbee

Top Row: Patrick Fess, Trey Wessler, Philip Gates, Walter Elder, Dustin Glenn, Scott Witte, Travis Northcutt, William Address

ju boys

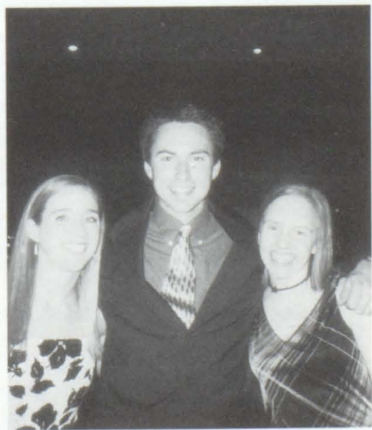

Domination! Go-Getter, Trevor Johnson, is always on his toes come game time! He has his eyes on the prize!

Judo Chop! Avid JV soccer player, Daniel Gehrig, uses his karate knowledge to put the ball under Magnet's control.

Where's the camo, dude! Goalie, Walter Elder, takes a quick pause to quench his thirst. Walter is famous for sporting his crazy camo pants while regulating the goal.

Service with a Smile! JV managers, Paige Tyler and Lilah Cady, along with JV Boys coach, Nate McAbee, are all about the team.

ju boys by Paige

Raise the Roof... David Yancey and Jessica Demello made it to almost every girls' game this season. Dedicated fans like these helped the girls find success in district play-offs this year.

Sweet Dreams! Some of the team congregates for a big good-night at a hotel in Dallas. The girls always bond the most during out-of-town tournaments.

Turn Your Hips! India Mayo, sophomore, crosses the ball to the forwards during a game against a Dallas team.

Ring the Bell, School's in Session, Sucka! Julia Vaughan, freshman, and Leigh Alexander, senior, "take 'em to school." The Dallas girls give chase as our players take it down the field to the goal.

We Dedicate...

- Leigh- pepper spray to avoid the horrendous attacks of THE Courtney McCotter
- Emily- COOKIES!!!
- Susan - bananas for the leg cramps. Keep the dance party going.
- Jacquelyn- a daily planner to better schedule your piano lessons around soccer
- India- a compass to find your way in that new jeep
- Georgette- pads and a helmet for indoor practice and cocktail sauce from Leigh
- Julia F- round-trip ticket to the Univ. of AL so you can watch Snow Day with Chase
- Beverly- better luck next year with broken bones and a box of tissues
- Mary- caffeine pills to get you going for practice and games
- Laurie- your own personal tanning bed so you don't have to worry about those bad soccer tan lines
- Adrienne- a monkey so you will have a friend to climb over the fence with you when you shag balls

- Julia V- more specific directions to "roll into the goal"
- Stacy- many more duets with your very own mother
- Ulli- another trip to America to play with us again
- Lisa- more fun times in the hot tub sharing the extra top-secret information
- Laura- regulation size of the goal will be bigger...no more missing the open goal
- Suzanne- your own wardrobe so you don't have to use Julie's Mansfield dresses
- Tracie- a double-padded bikini top for all those freezing cold guys soccer games
- Meredyth- a vaccine to any kind of disease you can possibly get
- Julie R-better leadership skills when she leads stretches

Row 2: Lisa Fox, Georgette Lang, India Mayo, Julia Fell, Julie Rew, Adrienne Gedeon, Laurie Strickland

Girls Soccer

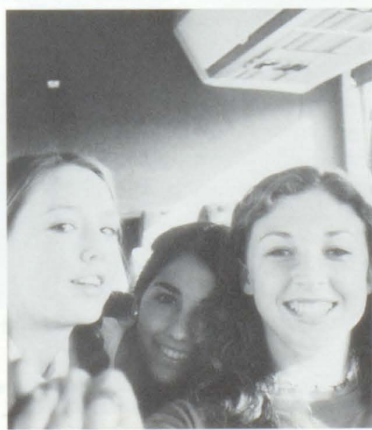

Get Your Gear On... Freshmen Adrienne Gedeon, Mary Coburn, Beverly Chauffe, and Julia Vaughan prepare for a tournament game.

Sssss....P....Mmmm 12:41am...Julie Rew, sophomore, and Leigh Alexander, senior, pull an all-nighter at a team slumber party.

Get Out of My Way! Sophomore Suzanne Dale fights a Dallas girl for the ball. Get her, Suzy Q!

Peek-a-boo! Julie Rew, Jaquelyn Broussard, and Laura Williamson wake up from their long winter nap. Activities include napping, eating, and watching movies whenever the team takes road trips to out-of-town tournaments.

What a kick! Sophomore Henry Hilario draws back to kick the ball while junior Ben Foster and senior Joe Nicholas watch in admiration.

Love the ball! Junior Chad Santos shows his deep admiration for the ball as he caresses it on the field. Seniors Jonathan Walsh, Joe Nicholas, and sophomore Andrew Patton don't seem to mind this display of affection!

Tell it like it is, Coach! Head coach, Jaime, gives the boys some pointers in a pre-game talk...let's hope his words of wisdom do the trick!

Stop, it's Jimbo time!! Senior Jim Broyles shows some deep concentration (and a great expression) as he gets ready to send the ball flying. This four-year varsity player shows how much concentration this game requires.

Jonathan Eaton

The ladies like to call Jonathan Eaton "Mr. Sexy Man." He is a very intense player and he knows how to really get into the game.

-Joe Nicholas

Ravi Patel

Ravi Patel was a vital part of the team when he finally recovered from his "problem." It was great when he could come back to the team!

-Chad Santos

Joe Nicholas

Joe-Joe is my hero. What more is there to say about Joe Nicholas?

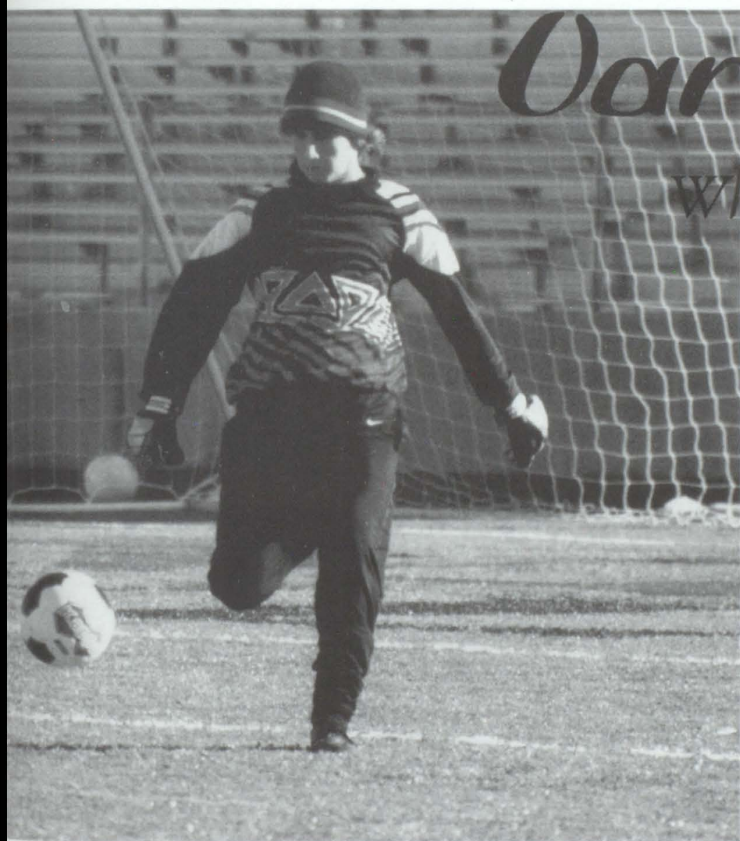

-Jordan Johnson

Row 1: Coach Jaime, Henry Hilario, Ravi Patel, Andrew Patton, Jordan Johnson, Jonathan Eaton, Ben Martin, Taylor Russell, Brad Goodwin, Kieran Balentine, Chad Santos, and Asst. Coach Thomas.

Row 2: Jonathan Walsh, Matthew Mastrodomenico, Robert Schaumburg, Derek Davis, Joe Nicholas, William O'Brien, Asher Niernan, Adam Leon, and Jim Broyles.

Varsity Soccer

Where the boys think they're men.

The Chad-Attack is back!! Junior goalkeeper Chad Santos gives us a taste of what he is made of!

Run, run, run now, Forest, STOP!! Team captains William O'Brien and Robert Schaumburg lead the team in the pre-game jog.

Step on out of my space!! Sophomore Taylor Russell shows the opposing player what happens when you get in the way of a Magnet soccer player!

Uh oh!! Junior Kieran Balentine looks more than a little confused about what he needs to do with that soccer ball speeding towards him!

by Sarah Roz

Do a little dance! Sophomore Henry Hilario looks like he is ready to tango with his competitor. No, wait, not tango, more like break-dance I would think!

Things that make you say 'hmmm'! Lacrosse players Calen Gregorio, Richard Yancey, Paul Babineaux, and Jacob Watkins wonder why THEY didn't make the soccer team.

Who needs a schoolbus when you have a CHARACTER bus!? Sponsor Mr. Nadeau watches as Kieran Balentine, Ravi Patel, and Jordan Johnson pile off the bus.

Man on a mission!! Junior Jordan Johnson (commonly referred to as J.J.) makes a run for it as he drives past the opposing team in a tournament. Jordan, though a new member of the varsity team, has been a vital link to the success of the starting 11.

Concentrate on the Task at Hand!!

Junior Ben Foster seems very intent on taking the soccer ball from the grasps of his teammate senior Joe Nicholas's feet! I guess that's what you call intense dedication to the goal!

Where my girls at?!!

The soccer guys know where to find their biggest fans; they will be sitting on the bench right next to them! Soccer managers Sarah Rozeman, Jayci Beckett, Mary Muslow, and Becca Rew are always around to carry the water, bake some cookies, and travel with the team!

Fanfare at such an early age!!
Mega-fan Hunter White ran across the field to get an autograph from the great Jordan Johnson. Too bad there wasn't a pen to get the soon-to-be-famous star's autograph!

A BIG thank you to our sponsor!

CHRISTUS SCHUMPERT

HEALTH SYSTEMS

Oh, it's JOE!! Senior Joe Nicholas looks away as we take a stunning picture him, dressed to perfection in his soccer attire. You go Joe!

Dust in the wind!! Senior Matthew Mastrodomenico lets the breeze caress his hair as he does a Baywatch run to the ball.

A hop, skip and a jump away!! Sophomore Andrew Patton shows a little leg action; we must have caught him polka dancing on the field!

Man in motion!! Junior Jonathan Eaton takes a golden opportunity to make the other team look like fools as he runs past them.

YEARBOOK ROCKS!

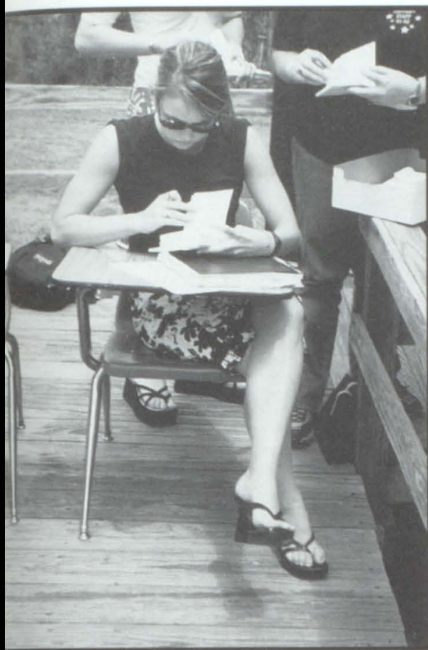

Lunch! Julie Rew dives in the nearest trash receptacle unit in hopes for that midday snack! Good Luck on that one!

Our Favorite Editor. Susan Vaughan is the oldest remaining member of our staff. She also likes dressing in medieval costumes.

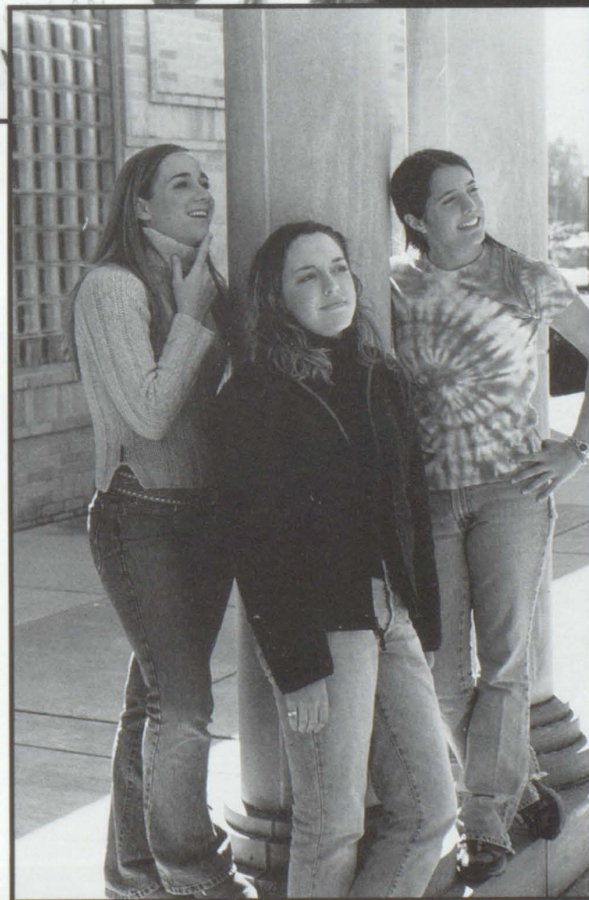

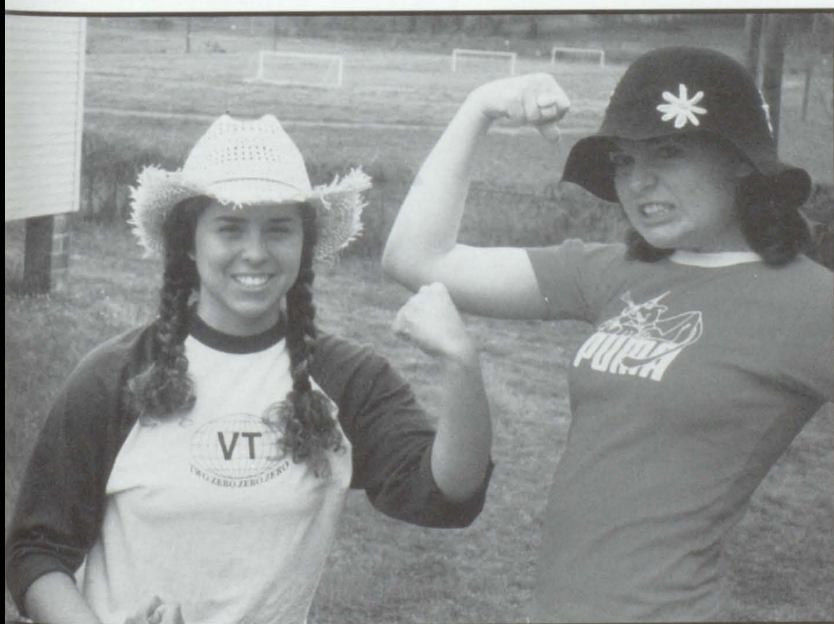

Wanna buy a yearbook? Staff member Erin Woods practices a sneaky way to sell yearbooks: stealing backpacks!

Keep up the good work! Senior staff member, Becca Rew, stays dedicated to her task especially when it comes time to pass out spring pictures.

Wishful Thinking! Emily Murrell, Susan Vaughan, and Lowrey Woodward hold flowers and pose, wishing they'd made the group photo.

Gotta love T-12! Dilligent staffers Julie Miller, Emily Klepper, Grace Nickels, Julie Grayson, Megan Wooley, Sarah Rubben, and Sarah Kathryn Delphin take a break from the rigorous yearbook environment to snap a pic! Go Yearbook...woohoo!

Crowl! Hanz and Franz, aka body builders Sarah Rozeman and Ryan Gedeon, are ready to pump you up.

Moment of Reflection. Staffers Paige Tyler, Elizabeth Burwell, and Jessica Demello ponder the wondrous qualities of our Jostens yearbook representative, Mr. Baker.

As the great rapper Nelly once said, "Must be the money." We find ourselves constantly thinking of our financial situation, whether it's dreaming of how much money we could have or waking up to the reality of how much money we really do have. The many Magnet Odyssey supporters are dreaming of expanding their business through the exposure of high school students. And the Odyssey staff is dreaming of a perfect year-book. Each of our benefactors gets us one step closer to our dream.

We thank you.

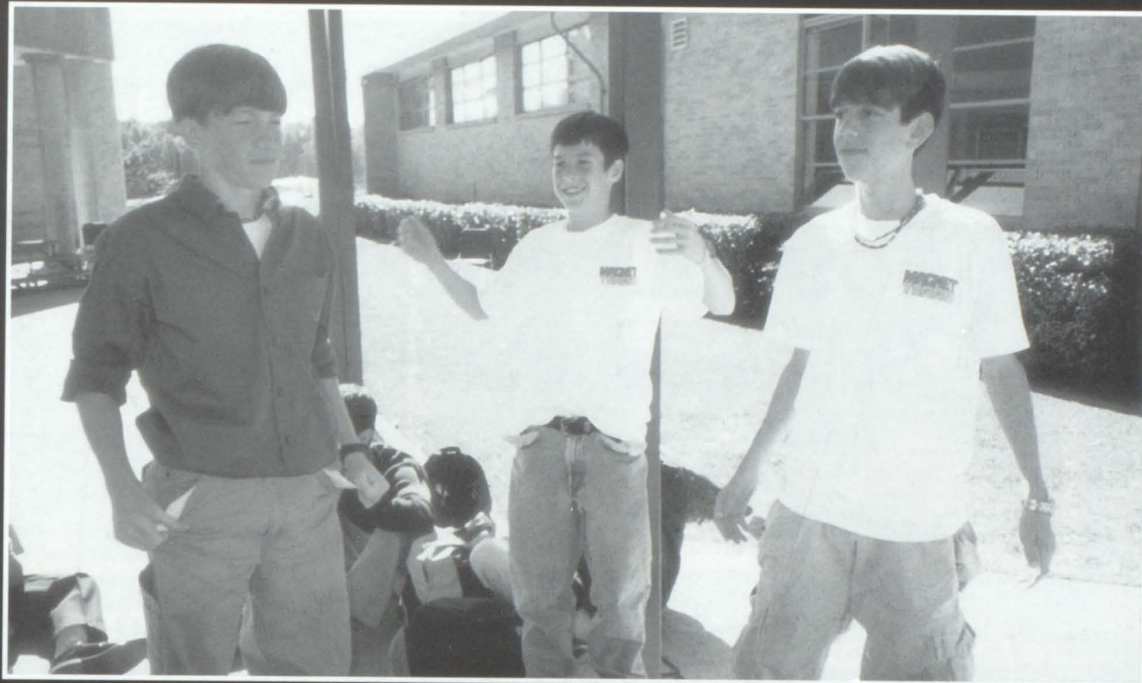

Is this enough money for gas?

Senior Ryan Goodwin contemplates the ride home. Will fifty-five cents cut it?

Workin' Girl. Junior Taylor Robertson makes some extra cash working after school and on weekends at Arts on Fire.

Free Money! Clumsy senior Ashley Murphy seems to have a hole in her pocket, as LaToya Jordan plays Finders Keepers.

Where did all the money go? Freshmen Hart Grozinger, Trevor Johnson, and Slade Walker seem to be strapped for cash.

Who says money doesn't grow on trees? Lucky junior Ben Foster snags that five dollar bill in a flash.

Fun with a checking account! Junior Lilah Cady verifies her expenditures as she balances her checkbook.

"I've got my mind on my money, and my money on my mind."

Dearest Kathryn,

Can you believe it? We made it! We are so very proud of you. When I think back over all the hard choices and tough decisions you've made, I can't begin to express my admiration for you. When I see you smile; a smile that literally lights up the room, I realize your goodness goes right to the core. You have been my anchor and my light.

Now it's your turn to fly! You can't imagine all the wonderful things life has in store for you. You can do and be anything you dream. Go for it!

DON ANGLE
PRESIDENT

Dear Lauren Snell,

You have meant the world to me. You have been a tremendous help with everything I do. As I head off to Atlanta this fall, I have to wonder how I will make it on my own. My security blanket is being torn from me. You were always right there to giving a helping hand or a word of encouragement. No longer will I be able to call and ask you where I put my book or where I last saw that paper.
No longer will I be able to just sit and feel you in the same room, even without looking. I will have to keep up with my own appointments, my own schedules, and my own homework. When I leave Shreveport, I will be leaving a huge part of myself behind. I want to wish you the best of luck in your Senior year. You will do wonderfully. Your parents have only the highest of hopes for you. I know
you can do whatever
you set your mind to.
Always remember
Lauren, I love you.

Love,
Bradley Phillips

Colophon

The 2001 Odyssey is a book of pictures, copy, and artwork collected as memories of the 2001-2002 school year. It was created by a select group of 21 students who worked on it under the supervision of their adviser, Mrs. McGuire, during their 4th-period yearbook class. The 700 copies were printed with a 9" x 12" laminated litho cover. The cover artwork was created by Senior Warner Brown. Process color was used in multiples, 1,2,3,5,6,7,8,9,10,11, and 31. ExPonto Regular was purchased for the folio text and Smile was purchased for various uses throughout the book. 100% of the book was designed on eight PC compatible computers using Adobe Pagemaker 5.0. There is a 16-page Worldbeat supplement created by Josten's between pages 32 and 33. The yearbooks are printed in Topeka, Kansas, by Josten's School Publishing Group and cost in excess of $48,000. David Baker is our Josten's representative.

Dear Seniors,

What can we say? Without y'all in yearbook, we would have been deprived of story upon story, lunch leftovers, and--most importantly--your worldly wisdom. We're sending you out into a confusing and chaotic world, and we hope that you all will maintain these admirable attributes:

Becca: Your interpretation of the word "deadline" and your ability to handle intense sibling rivalry.

Bekah: Your salad-eating rituals.

Brad: Your mind-boggling knowledge of computers and the opposite sex.

Emily K.: Your eagerness to reach deadlines weeks in advance.

Emily M.: Your incredible "This or That" skills...Brad or Tom?

Erin: Your generosity in purchasing much-needed equipment for the good of the group.

Frances: Your braceless smile and creative kickers.

Grace: Your extensive library of teen mags.

Julie G.: Your go-getter attitude in the cut-throat business of selling yearbook ads.

Julie M.: Your extraordinary ability to write something about nothing.

Lowrey: Your complete and phenomenal collection of black skirts...leave a few for us!

Ryan: Your indecent storytelling skills...fun for the whole family!

Sarah: Your insatiable "hunger" for life.

Susan: Your adroit manipulation skills and motherly instincts.

Go get 'em! We're all friends here...

With all our love,

The Yearbook Underclassmen
